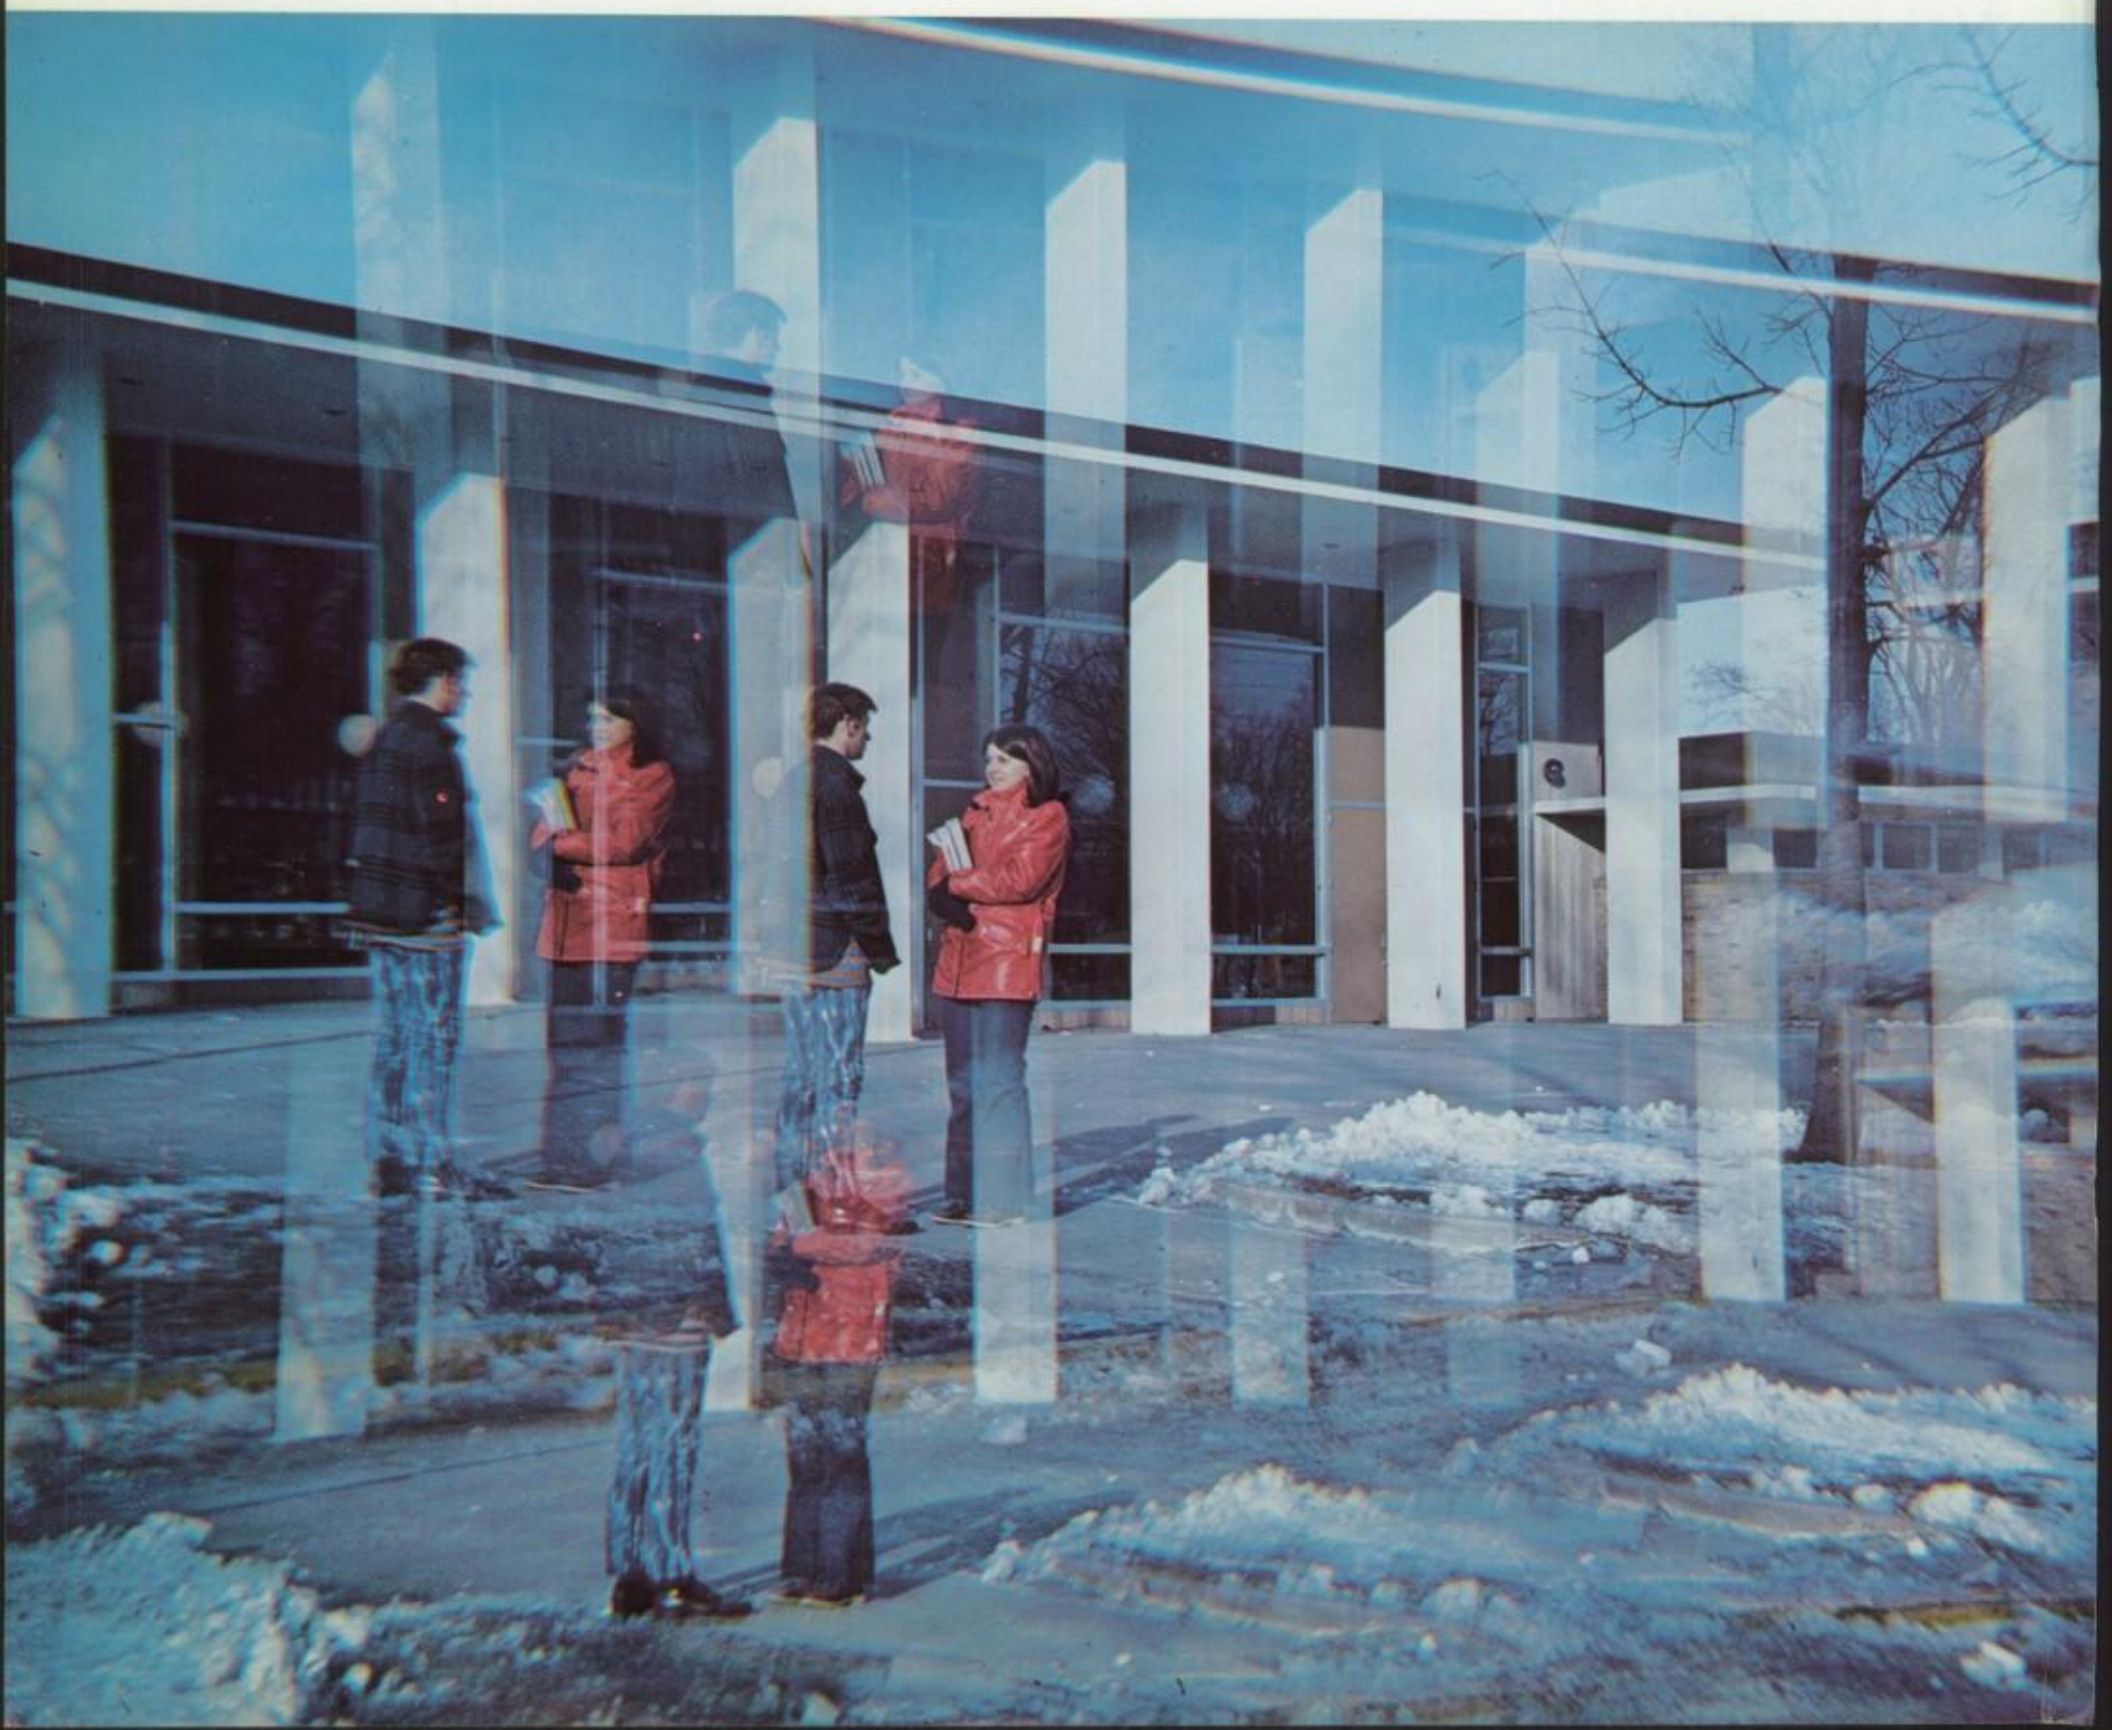
LPHS represents fusion,
the uniting of different elements...
different people, different emotions
...to form one whole...our school

Two students, like other students in LPHS, see their school life as a fusion of events, people, and learning. They see themselves as a part of that fusion.



This great day for Mr. Moryl is climaxed by the discovery of a flat tire.

Fusion can be represented in many, many ways—not only in a chemistry classroom. For example, in LaPorte High all types of people are brought together . . . students who want to learn and students who are b e i n g forced to learn. Think of all the subjects offered in our school—the variety in interests of the teachers and pupils. To paraphrase a popular saying, we're "getting it all together" in LaPorte High School!

Mr. Burk tries to calm the choir members before their first concert.

Even before school begins, football plans are being put together during summer practice sessions.

Fusion—a unity of individual people as one student body—is a part of LPHS

LPHS offers many ways to bring its students together as one group. Athletic events or spirited pep sessions are considered most important because they boost the student's needed support for their teams. But even within a team itself there is cooperation of all players and coaches to keep the team together. In addition, clubs and organizations where group planning and working is involved can also unite the members. With A.F.S. students in 1970, La Porte's students are brought closer to people and customs of Japan and Barbados.

Throughout, at a football game, in a crowded hallway, or even in smaller classes, there is evidence of fusion—of bringing individual and different people together as one student body.

School spirit through loud cheering, hopeful predictions, and excitement at a pep rally before the City game is important to bring all the students together.

Students–hundreds of individual students crowded together in the hallway between classes–best represent a certain fusion of people found in LPHS.

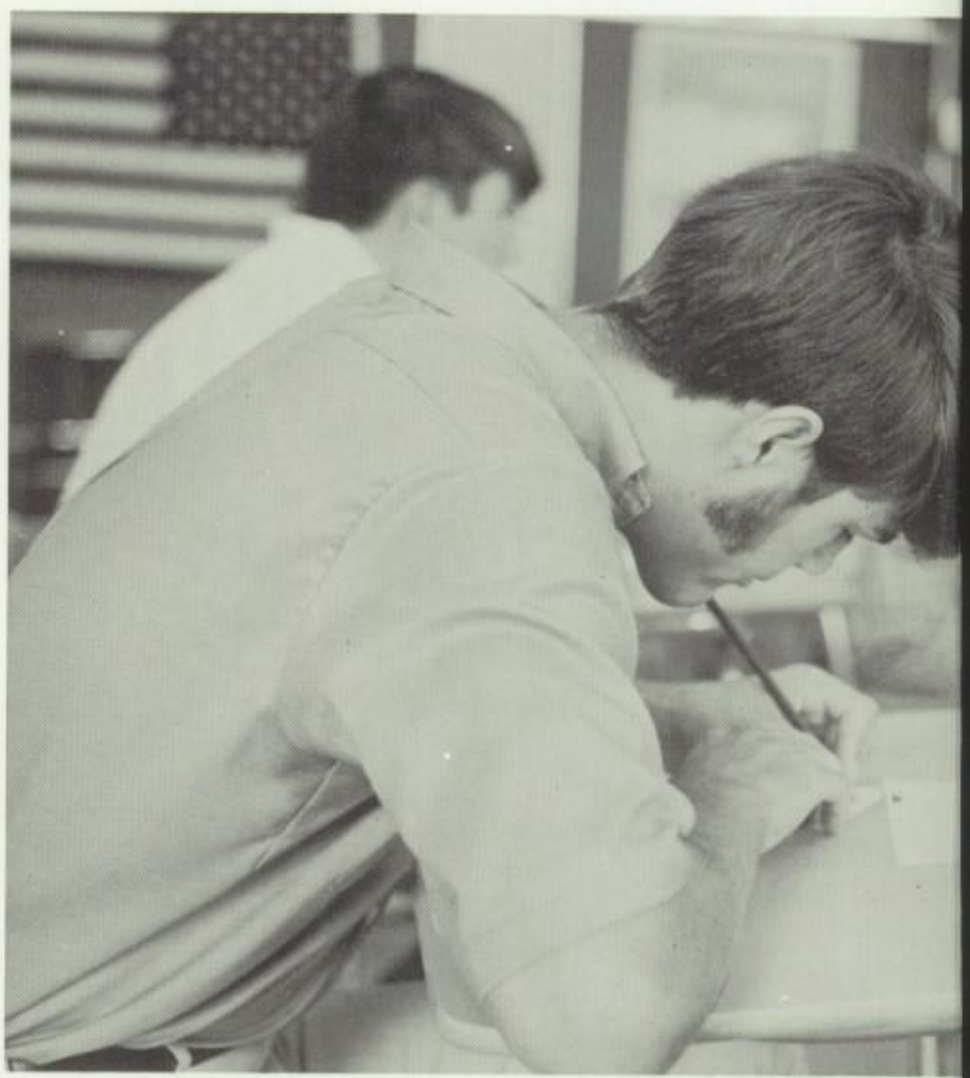
Strain and tension of a boy doing sit-ups contrasted to the leisure talk and idleness of boys in the background–this gym class is both at the same time.

So much to learn . . . so little time

So much to learn—1776; NaCl; A=½bh. There are many tests to study for, many papers to write. The facts are somewhere out there and the feelings . . . in here. Now, let's try to bring it all together. Our heads ache from memorizing the dates, formulas, and equations. Our eyes are sore from reading. We say we are free, but still, our minds seem to be tangled up in the typewriter ribbon. We are tired, but there is so much to learn. And we will learn more—much more—before this academic year is over.



It's Bruce Sturgill's third and final year for filling out his IBM cards.

As president of the International Club, Mark Anderson realizes it is much easier to concentrate while leaning on a stick.

Homework is a continual chore for Jane Moore.

Mike Drayton, Jim Petrila, and Mark Krentz study and go over their lines for the fall play, "Don't Drink the Water".

Among the thirteen floats in the Homecoming Parade was this one entered by Girl Reserves.

During halftime activities, suspense was relieved as Carol DeBruyne, the Boys' Service Club candidate, was crowned Homecoming Queen.

The animated eagle on the Art Club float winged its way to first place.

Homecoming: a fusion of events

Festivities for Homecoming 1970 got under way at 6:00, starting with the parade down Lincolnway, depicting this year's chosen theme "101 Pigskin Odessy." At the High School, where the parade ended, a traditional bonfire, the result of a combined student body effort to collect wood, was burned. From here, the spirited crowd moved on to Kiwanis Field where, in spite of the loud cheering and roaring of the students, our Slicers lost to the South Bend Eagles 20-0. Half-time proved to be full of its usual excitement and suspense as Carol DeBruyne was named the 1970 Homecoming Queen, and Art Club was announced the recipient of the first place $25 for the best club float. Homecoming again was a great night for all.

Dave Amor (20) and Tim Ford (24) attacked one of the John Adams Eagles in one of the high points of the Homecoming game.

Choir director, Mr. B u r k, seems happy that he could aid the students who made the Modern Music Masters' float by pulling it in the parade.

Time and effort contributed by Pat Thompson and Mike Drayton helped put the Tau Sigma Chi float together in time for the Homecoming Parade.

In a very short time this pile of wood will go up in flames. Tim Bechdol had better hurry and get off or he may burn with it.

Carol DeBruyne is crowned Queen during half-time

Preparation for Homecoming started a few weeks before the big event as individual clubs decided upon their ideas and began work on their floats for the parade. Every club wishing to enter a candidate for Homecoming Queen was, in turn, obligated to enter a float.

This year there were fifteen girls chosen by various clubs as queen candidates. The student body then voted and a queen and two runner-ups were determined. Part of the half-time activities included the traditional naming and crowning of the Homecoming Queen. This year's queen was Carol DeBruyne, Boys' Service Club candidate. Kyoko Hayashi, our AFS student from Japan who represented International Club, was first runner-up. And finally, Mary Gnatt, DE candidate was chosen second runner-up.

Kim Deuitch and her escort, Len Ledgerwood, share the excitement as Carol DeBruyne, shown here with Jim Petrila, is announced Homecoming Queen for 1970.

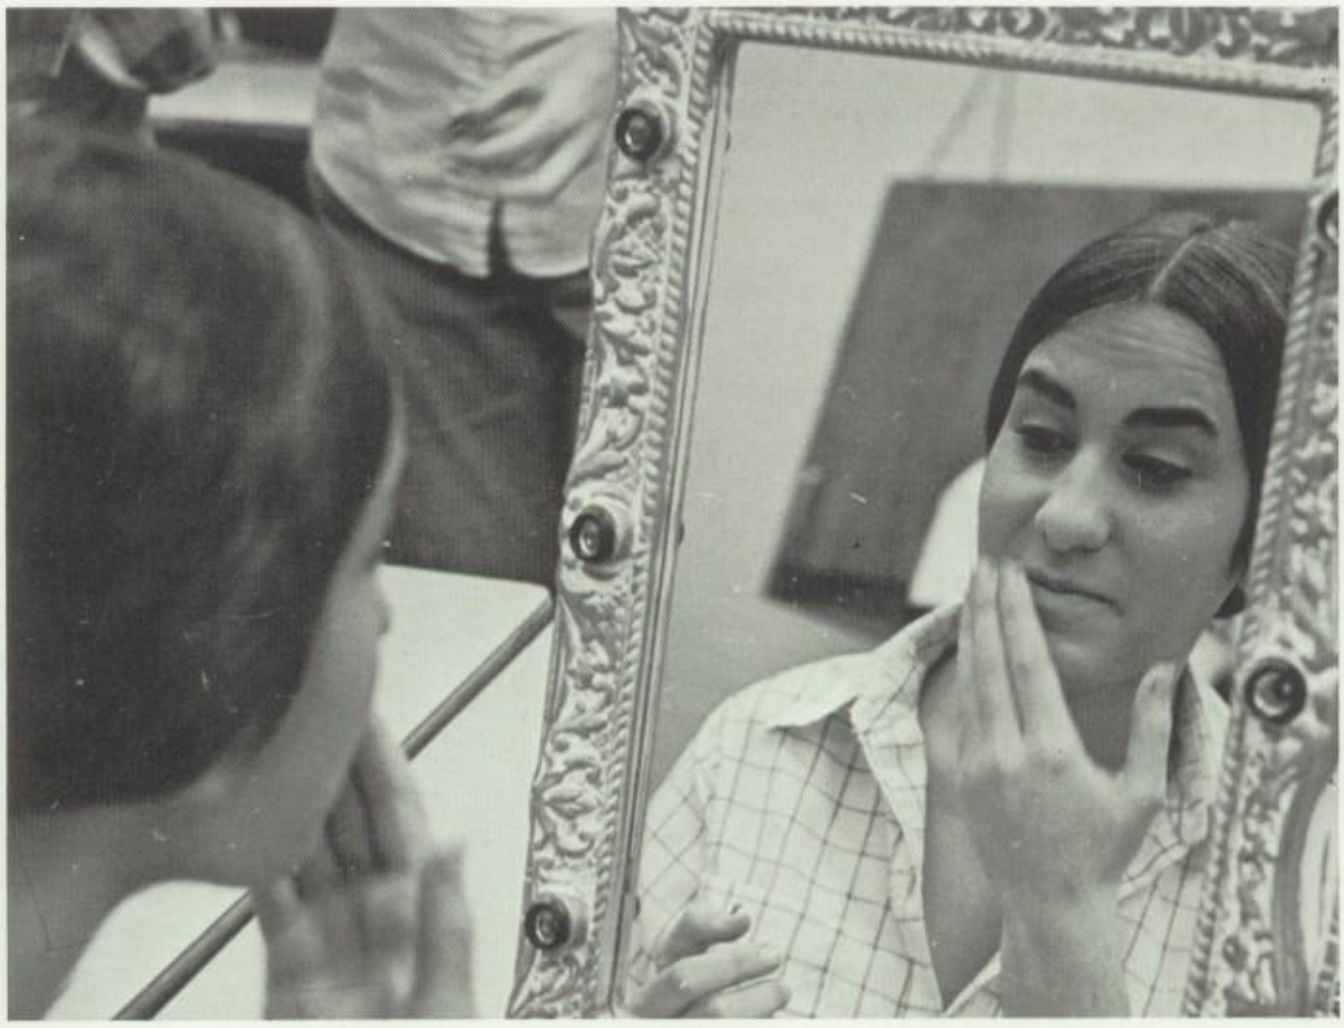
Despite rehearsal hang-ups, Mr. Lampl enjoys directing Woody Allen's "Don't Drink the Water".



Marianne Trigg simply "loves" to put on her theatrical make-up for her role of Marion Hollander.

"There's my rabbit!" shrieks the shocked Father Drobney as he starts chasing the Chef.

First all-student production

A new idea was brought to all LPHS students after the spring play, 1984. Students interested in putting on another production organized and decided to do three one-act plays. Three directors, who chose their own plays, and a stage manager were elected by the students. Roger Bechtol, the elected stage manager, was in charge of coordinating all the crews. The directors and their selected plays were as follows: Mark Anderson, TRUE BLUE AND TRUSTED, a melodrama; Mike Bailey, THE CASK OF AMONTILLADO, a drama; and Jan Stuebing, PASSION, POISON AND PETRIFACTION, a comedy. The casts and crews felt that the plays were successful and hoped they set a precedent.

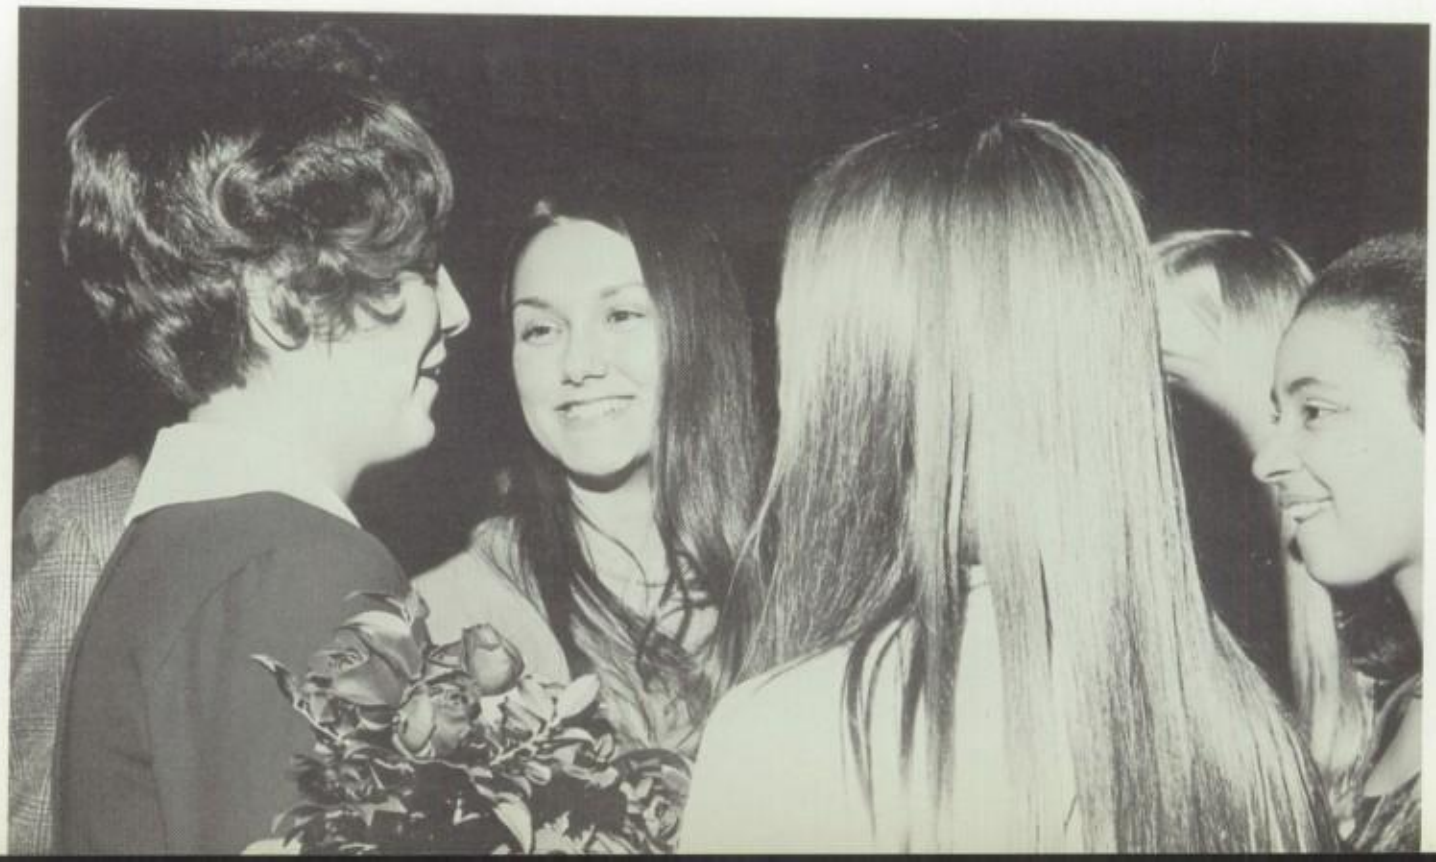
Jo Ellen Zellers is announced the 1971 ElPe Queen

Once again this year the naming of the El Pe Queen highlighted the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. Unlike any other school queen contest, the El Pe Queen and her court are not voted upon by the student body, but rather are selected on the basis of their beauty, poise, and appearance by professional judges. This year seventeen different clubs nominated queen candidates for the contest, which is sponsored by the El Pe staff. Jo Ellen Zellers, nominated by Art Club, was announced the 1971 El Pe Queen during the intermission of the Dreams band concert. She was presented with a bouquet of red roses and a silver charm bracelet. In the court were Karen Sacks, first runner-up, nominated by National Honor Society, Pat Cavanaugh, second runner-up, from Clockstoppers, Lauressa White, third runner-up, for Spanish Club, and Karen Williams, fourth runner-up, for FEA. Each girl in the court received a single red rose. Judging the contest this year were Miss Eve Alexander of Jay Del Casino, New York, Miss Crum of House of James Beauty College, South Bend, Mr. Ray Dobbs of Root Photographers, Chicago, and Mr. Wade of Ray Vogue School, Chicago.

Jo Ellen Zellers reigns happily as the 1971 El Pe Queen. Members of the court are Karen Sacks, Pat Cavanaugh, Lauressa White, and Karen Williams.

Jo Ellen Zellers shares the excitement of having been named El Pe Queen with members of her court.



Mr. Goad presents Nancy Burrows with her traditional bouquet of roses.

Student Council initiated a new method of selecting a track queen this year. Each club selected three senior girl nominees to make up a list of names from which ten finalists would be chosen. Since the decision on these ten finalists was made by members of all the spring sports teams, including baseball, track, and golf, the title of track queen was changed to spring sports queen. The entire student body then voted from these finalists to choose a queen and four court members. Nancy Burrows was named the first spring sports queen at the Invitational Track Meet in May. Karis Kessler, Rita Boklund, Mary Gnatt, and Kathy Chroback were all runner-ups.

As the 1971 Prom approaches, Juniors hasten to complete the decor

Planning for the 1971 prom began long before the actual event. The theme "A Time For Us" was decided and the committees were appointed, naming Bruce Fisher Prom Chairman. The week before the prom, members of the junior class spent many hours working at the Civic Auditorium. When they arrived Friday night, Prom night, and saw the Civic Auditorium decorated with brick walls, white wrought-iron furniture, and large white columns with ivy growing on them, everyone agreed that all the hard work was worthwhile. The couples danced to the music of the Massachusetts Assembly while parents and relations watched from above. Highlighting this night was when it was announced that Mary Gnatt was Prom Queen and the Junior class sponsors, John Carnel and Carol Pattee, were given gifts of appreciation for all of their hard work. Immediately after, the couples danced while the band played the theme song, "A Time For Us."

At midnight the couples were chauffeurred to the La Porte Theatre where they saw the movie BORCELINO. Then, after being chauffeurred back to the Civic, door prizes were awarded and hungry prom-goers devoured the buffet style meal catered by Keim's. The post-prom band was the "Idle Few." During the band breaks, everyone was entertained by King and Zerita, who did an ESP act, and George Johnstone was the Master of Ceremonies.

At 5:00 A.M. the prom was suddenly over and couples went home. Many spent the next day at the beach. Over eight hours of fun!

New style set at Junior-Senior Banquet

Before the festivities began, students enjoyed a buffet-style meal.

This year's Junior-Senior Banquet was different from any other in LaPorte High School history. Formerly, the senior class prepared a variety of comedy skits, but as a change of pace the traditional format was altered. A California group, The Dreams, was chosen from a long list of prospective bands. The decision was made after seniors on the entertainment committee heard The Dreams' album. They provided dancing music for an hour and a half.

Preceding the entertainment, both juniors and seniors enjoyed a meal of ham, roast beef, or turkey catered by Keim's catering service.

A California group called The Dreams provided the entertainment for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

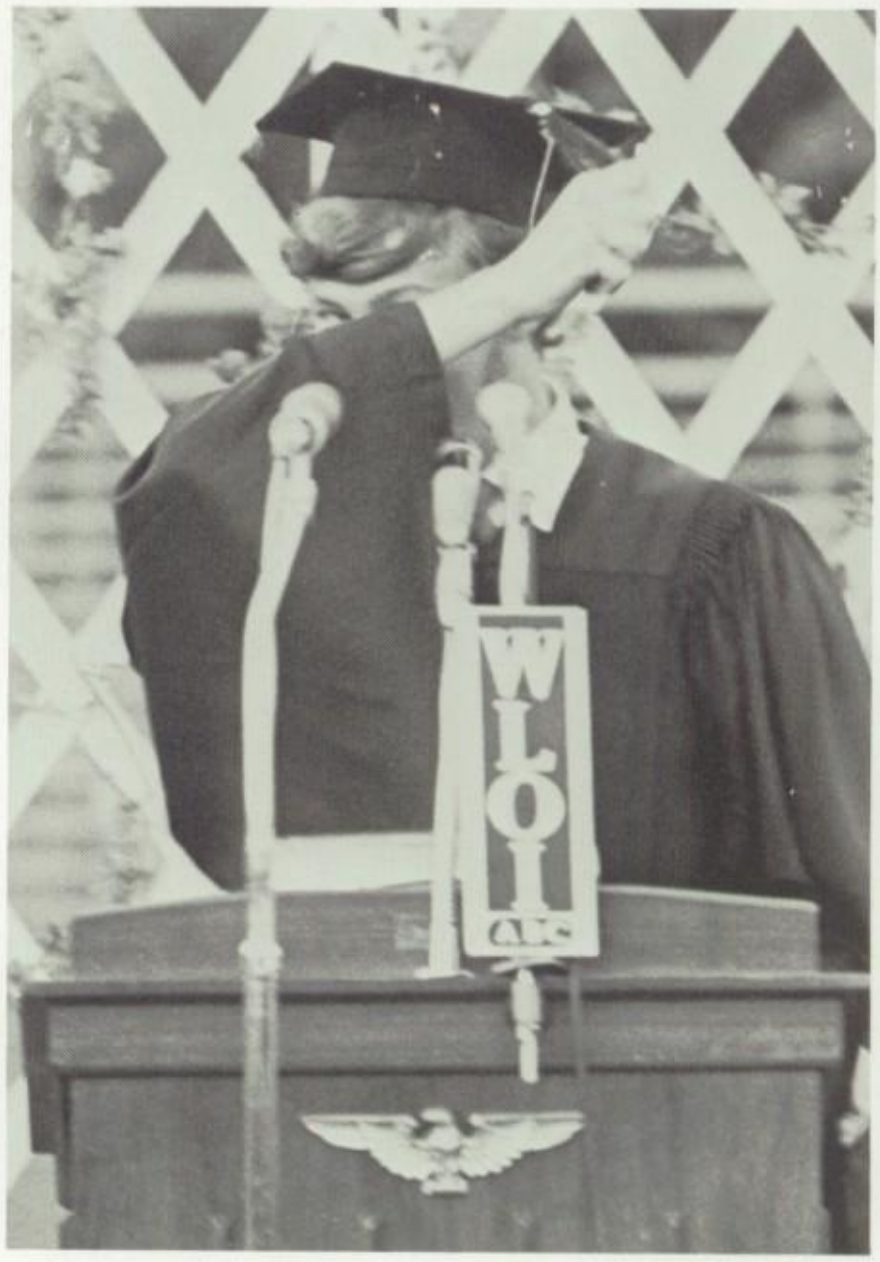
Upperclassmen's final goal is achieved

As the sun began to set on Kiwanis Field, the 531 members of the 1971 senior class marched in while the LPHS band played Mendelson's "War March of the Priests." LaPorte was again fortunate to have warm, comfortable temperatures; thus, Kiwanis Stadium was filled completely and the seniors, now graduates, did not complain too loudly about having to wear the black caps and gowns.

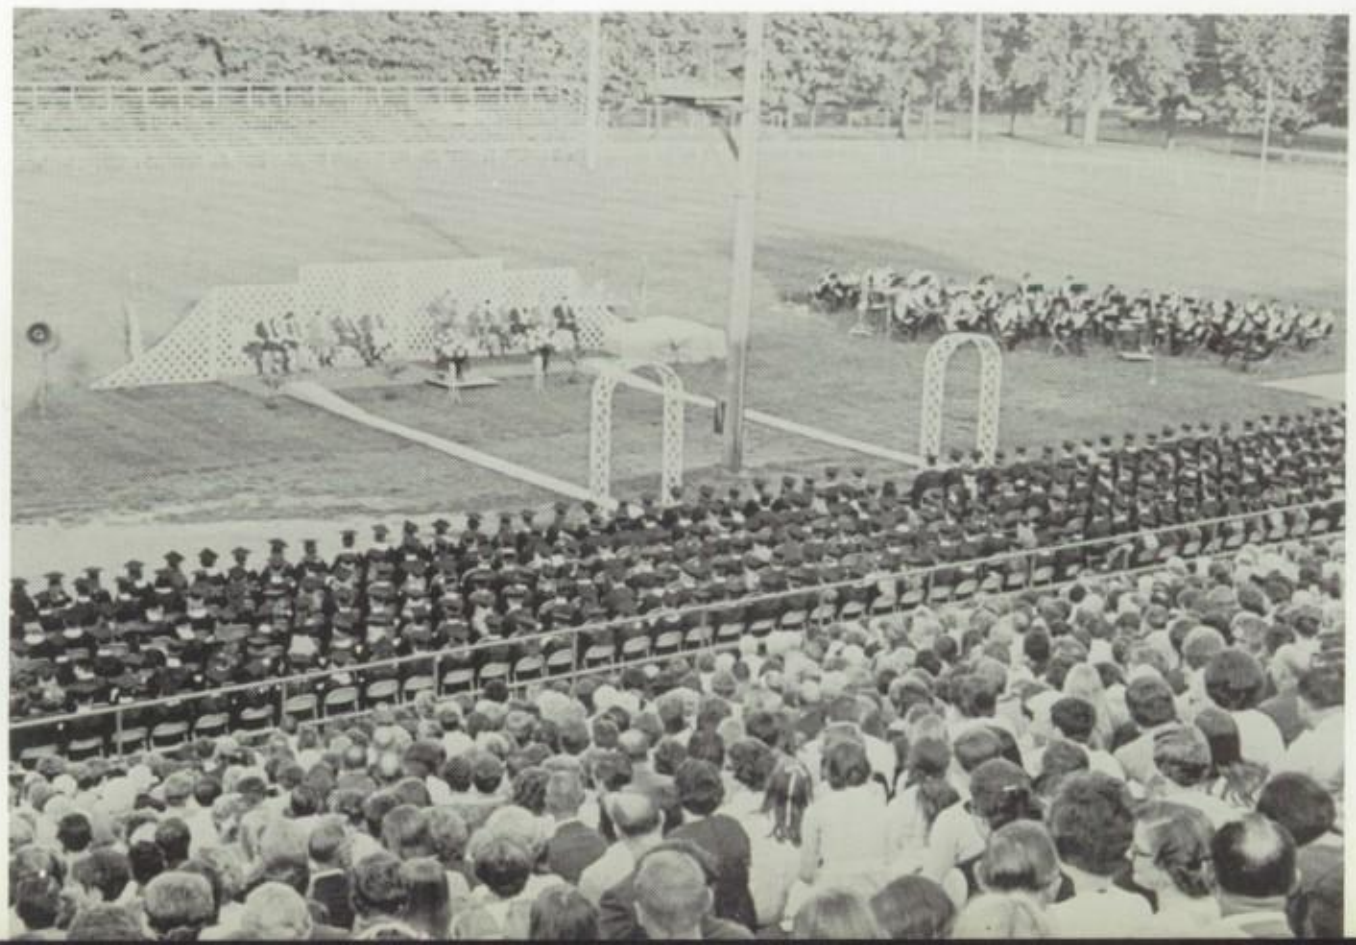
After the invocation, given by the Reverend R. J. Burgbacher, School Superintendent Harold Hargrave introduced the evening's speaker Dr. Lowell C. Rose, Executive Secretary of Phi Delta Kappa. In his speech, Dr. Rose pointed out to the graduates the necessary points of having a productive life.

When the formal ceremony was over, there were different thoughts in each graduate's mind. Tears of joy were seen on the faces of those who were happy to finally be out of LPHS and tears of sorrow on the faces of those thinking of the friends they would miss. Some thought deeply about what they would do now. Most were a little confused. LaPorte's commencement this year, marked the end of high school careers for 531 people, but the beginning of their lives.

As his last duty to the class of 1971, Senior class president Jeff Parker leads them in flipping over their orange and black tassels.



Kiwanis Stadium is filled by hundreds of parents, teachers, and friends who have come to see the 531 graduates.



Of the many emotions seen at a high school graduation, the joy on Brenda Hall's face and the sorrow on Sharon Hamilton's face are the most common.

"How many goodly creatures are there here! How beauteous mankind is! O brave new world, that has such people in't"–William Shakespeare

ACADEMICS

Public attendance is greatly desired at the School Board meetings.

Mr. Tuholski ponders over a certain aspect of the issue at hand.

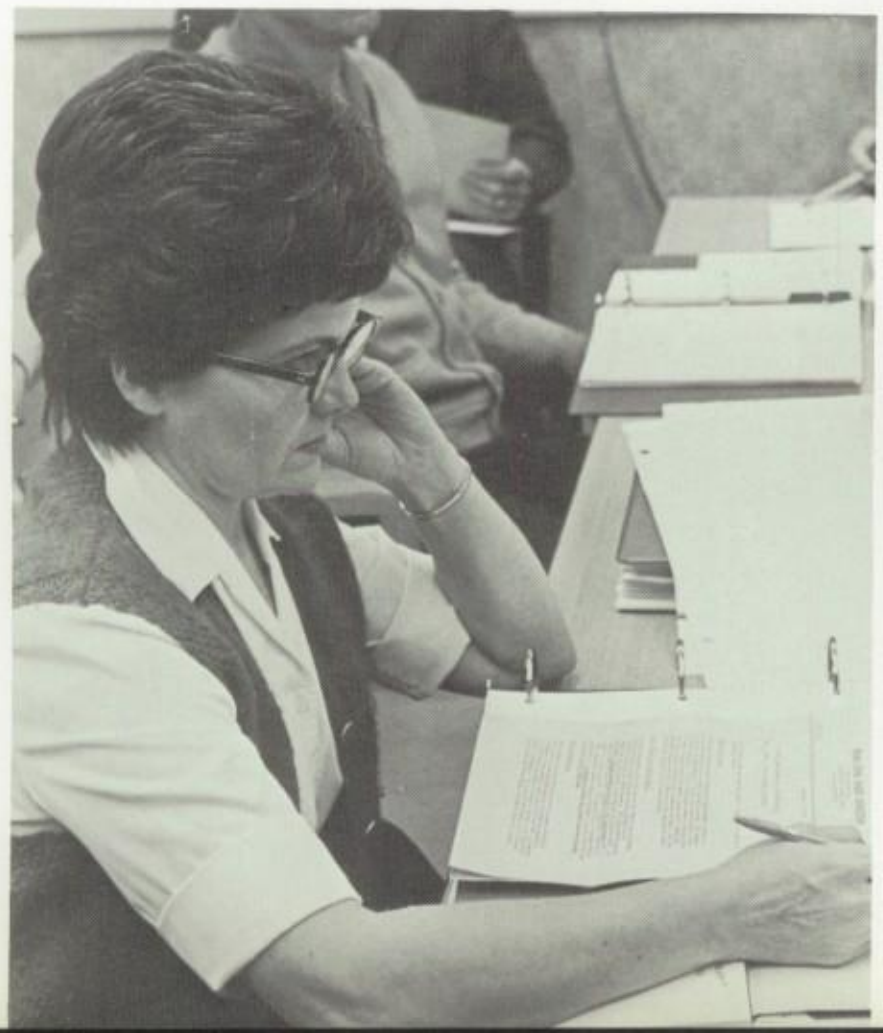
Elections for the La Porte Community School Board are held every two years. This year four seats of the seven were up for election.

Added to the Board are Mrs. Hostetler and Mr. Iselman. Returning are Mr. Ribordy and Mr. Philbrook. These members, plus the others, set the policy for all operations of the school system. They operate the financial end of the educational system; a recent financing set-up is the construction of the Kesling Junior High School.

School Board will greatly miss

Members of the new La Porte Community School Board are from left to right, Mr. Joseph F. Tuholski, President, Mrs. Rosemary Hostetler, Vice-president, Mr. Seth S. Philbrook, Mr. Vance H. Iselman, Superintendent Harold Hargrave, Mr. Howard J. Ribordy, Mr. Kenneth W. Schoof, and Mr. Paul E. Oakes.

Mrs. Hostetler waits until another finishes talking before she speaks.



Dr. Joseph Lowe's work was a valuable asset to School Board.

"Dr. Lowe was a man of varied talents . . . We shall miss him very much." This sums up the busy life of Dr. Joseph Lowe who died September 19,1970. Dr. Lowe progressed from a teacher in Orange County to an administrative assistant with the La Porte Community Schools. He directed the Public Personnel, developed the special education work, and edited the "School News". Dr. Lowe was also very active in civic and community organizations and helped with youth projects.

Dr. Lowe, a man of varied talents

Mr. Paul Oakes considers the good and bad points of a problem being discussed.

Paper work is a tedious job that even asst. principal Mr. Hannah must do.

Schools, large and small, have problems that must be solved if that school wants to continue to exist. Most problems are either taken to the counselors or to the school heads, the principal and his assistants. Cooperation from the students with the school administration hastens the discovery of the best solution to these problems. Yet, many of these problems must be brought up before the School Board. In this case, the school administration serves as the liaison for the students, thus completing the "chain."

Bill Crum and Nancy Hill know that catching their counselor free is often difficult.

Counselors bring to mind . . . teachers . . . people interested in student affairs . . . or someone to talk to about problems. Just what does that word bring to your mind? Think back to the times when you sat down for a serious talk or just stopped by to say, "Hi." Or remember those decisions you had to make: whether to take this class, drop that class, apply for this scholarship, or try for that college. And what about that constant boost for better grades? But you know the nicest thing about counselors is that they always have time for YOU!

Non-teaching Staff; backbone of LPHS

Betty Rackham
Nurse

As every building, small or large, great or unknown, needs a foundation, so does our school. But even foundations need something to build upon. Our non-teaching staff is a group of people that comprise the building blocks of our foundation at La Porte High School. The custodians work to give us a clean and sanitary school. They are the people who seem to know the way to talk a locker into opening when we had given up in despair.

Another building block is the cooks. They do all the meal planning, cooking, serving, and cleaning up afterwards.

Don't forget the office personnel and the great jobs they do every day in organizing the absentee lists, planning dates for us to see the counselors, and doing the bookkeeping of the school.

Without a strong foundation, the building falls. Our school, La Porte High School, has a great, strong foundation.

Our library is a busy place all year long, especially during research and term paper time. Also, there are those preparing book reports and speeches and finishing homework, who flock to the library during study hall, before, and after school. The library is livened up with decorations on Halloween and in December. The Christmas spirit is augmented in the library with a large white flocked Christmas tree on the reference table in the center of the room.

"I came, I saw, I conquered."

"I came, I saw, and I conquered." These are the sentiments of most cadet teachers. They came; they would come nervous and scared, wondering if they would bore the students; or perhaps they would remember the student teachers of their days, how some people took advantage of their newness, and how some were considerate of an unexperienced teacher. They saw; they sized up the situation, met students head on, and learned. They conquered; they approached new ways of teaching and then went on to become a success in teaching.

Math—a fusion of numbers.

2+2=4, 4+4=8—We left math like that behind in grade school. Now we are encountering the more advanced numbers in math courses, as anyone who has struggled through geometry, algebra, trigonometry, or c a l c u l u s knows. Learning Latin is easier with Mr. Ivey's personal attention.

No one is required by LPHS to take a foreign language; yet because of college suggestions or student interest, the language classes flourish. Latin, Spanish, German, and French enable a person to become an interpreter such as at the UN or just to provide communication when visiting a foreign country. Maybe one doesn't know why he learns a language now, but after he mixes into the business world a reason is bound to be recognized.

Inspection and anaylsis—these are the keys that open clearer channels for better domestic, intercontinental, and international relations. Inspecting and analyzing our country's background and our society's actions and attitudes and examining our governamental system and all its tributaries provide the basis of thinking that establishes all our relations. In addition, by analyzing other nations' backgrounds, present situations, and objectives, we can better establish our involvement with them. Thus, social studies courses acquaint us with today's world, how the present condition evolved by the interwoven attributes of our nation and every nation.

Physical Education improves state of matter and mind

Physical education is considered so important that two years of it is required in high school. Being physically fit is as important as being mentally fit. Basketball, volleyball, baseball, gymnastics, and other gym activities are a welcome change after sitting in a chair most of the day. Other gym activities include field hockey, archery, tumbling, modern dance, tennis, and crab soccer.

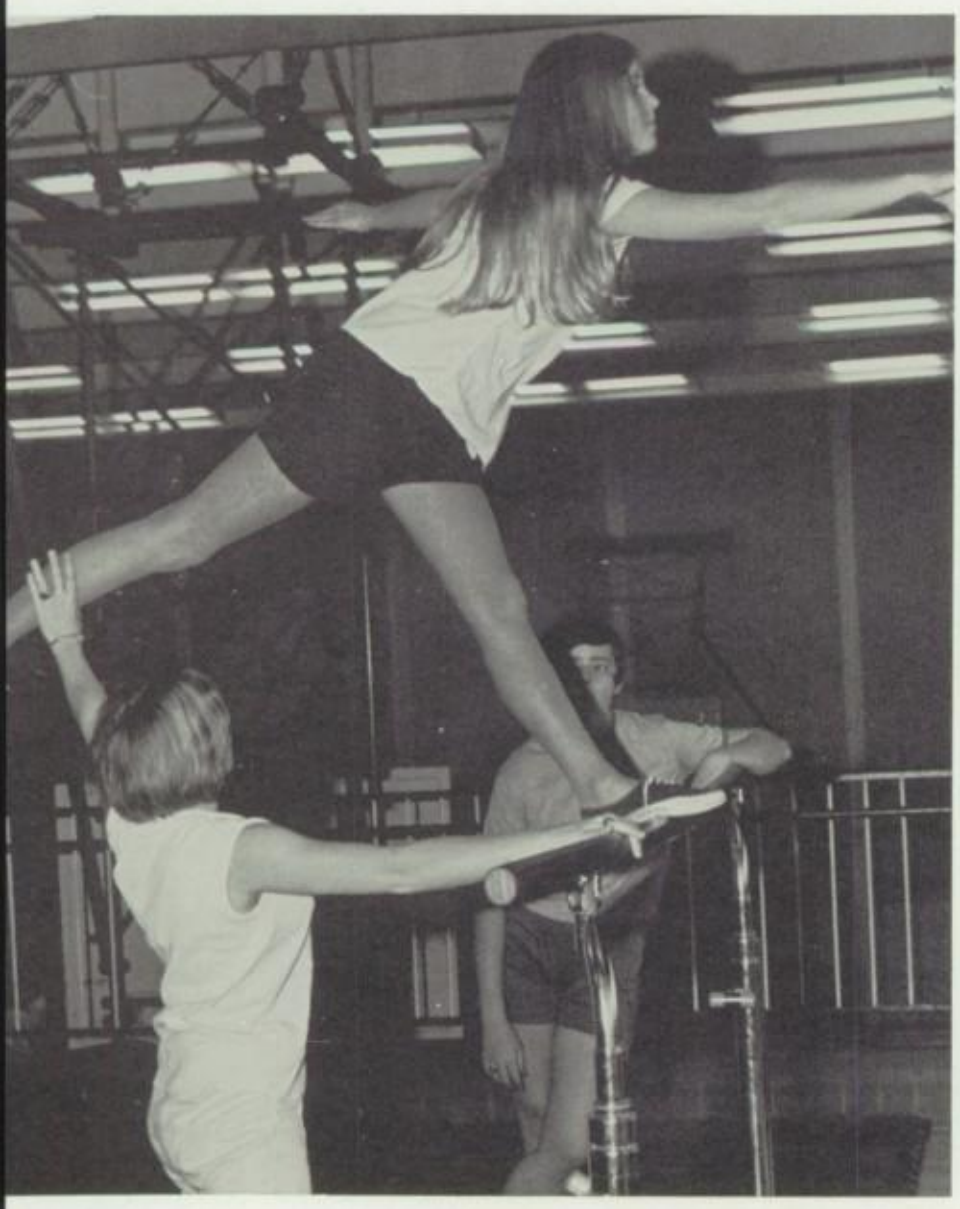
Eager to discuss a health problem is Rob Goble.

"Health is not a state of matter, but a state of mind."

Deanna Beemon welcomes a helping hand in maintaining her balance on the uneven parallel bars, a stunt which is not as easy as it looks.



Although every student must take health in high school, he is not forced to change his life habits just because they are not as healthful as should be. Instead, this course gives the facts about various problems such as mental illness and drugs from which the student draws his own conclusions. New to the health course this year are films, brochures, and a kit on drug abuse provided by the La Porte Kiwanis club for La Porte High School study.

Mr. Hoke reads off the answers as students correct their health tests.

Art is a form of communication. Like talking, singing, and acting, art gives a person the chance to express himself. Feelings are expressed in sculptures, paintings, and in the many other art projects processed by the individual. Colorful posters liven up the halls of LPHS; the showcase in the Industrial Arts wing overflows with representations of student work.

Art is sometimes a gooey mess, as John Wahlstrom discovers.

Express yourself— that's the name of the art game

As she applies the finishing touches to her work of art, Laura Zimmermann experiences a sense of pride in her painting.

Teri Seppey tests the hanging pictures to see if they are dry.

Ron Burns poses with a ponderous look on his face for the art class.

"We'll return right after this commercial." But commercial has other meanings, and it's used here as a heading for some of the courses offered at LPHS. Typing, Journalism, Bookkeeping, Accounting, Shorthand, and Selling are some of these. These subjects are also noted for their practicality as courses for the career-minded people, or those who wish to have a general knowledge of these skills.

ICT: Learning the trade while on the job

Recent years have witnessed a change in student curriculum. Today, as part of student preparation for the adult world, seniors have the opportunity to mingle in the business world. ICT, headed by Mr. Chapman, sponsors those students desiring to work in some industry half the school day for on-the-job training. ICT students handle such positions as seamstress, florist, and T.V. repairman.

Switching from a college-oriented curriculum, COE provides those Seniors with no desire to go to college a head start in their careers. Sooner or later every boy and girl will be turned on his own to lead his own life away from his parents. To succeed in life, some knowledge of the fundamentals such as cooking, sewing, and health and safety are needed. Home Ec attempts to acquaint interested students with a desire for such learning. Boys can take these classes. After all, they move away from home, too.

Most boys at some time during their high school education take an Industrial Arts course. Maybe their goal is to become a professional mechanic, engineer, electrician, or architect. These school courses introduce interested boys to these types of work. The boys are given the opportunity to experience this work and from that trial run decide if they would like to continue this line of work.

A different idea from the more commonly seen girls' and guys' choir is the Girls' Glee Club, which gives the girls a chance to show what they can do.

An exciting moment of class is watching Mr. Burk direct.

La, la, la, la; me, me, me, me—warming up and getting in pitch are habits for every singer before starting to sing. Mr. Burk repeatedly tries to bring out the best in every singer by giving such helpful hints as getting in pitch and taking proper breaths during a song. His success is displayed after long weeks of practice with Glee Club, A Cappella, and Kantra-Kays. His talents as a director are shown on those nights in December and May, when he brings all his choirs together to perform for the enjoyment of the community.

Mixed Chorus has been changed this year as it now includes only sophomores.

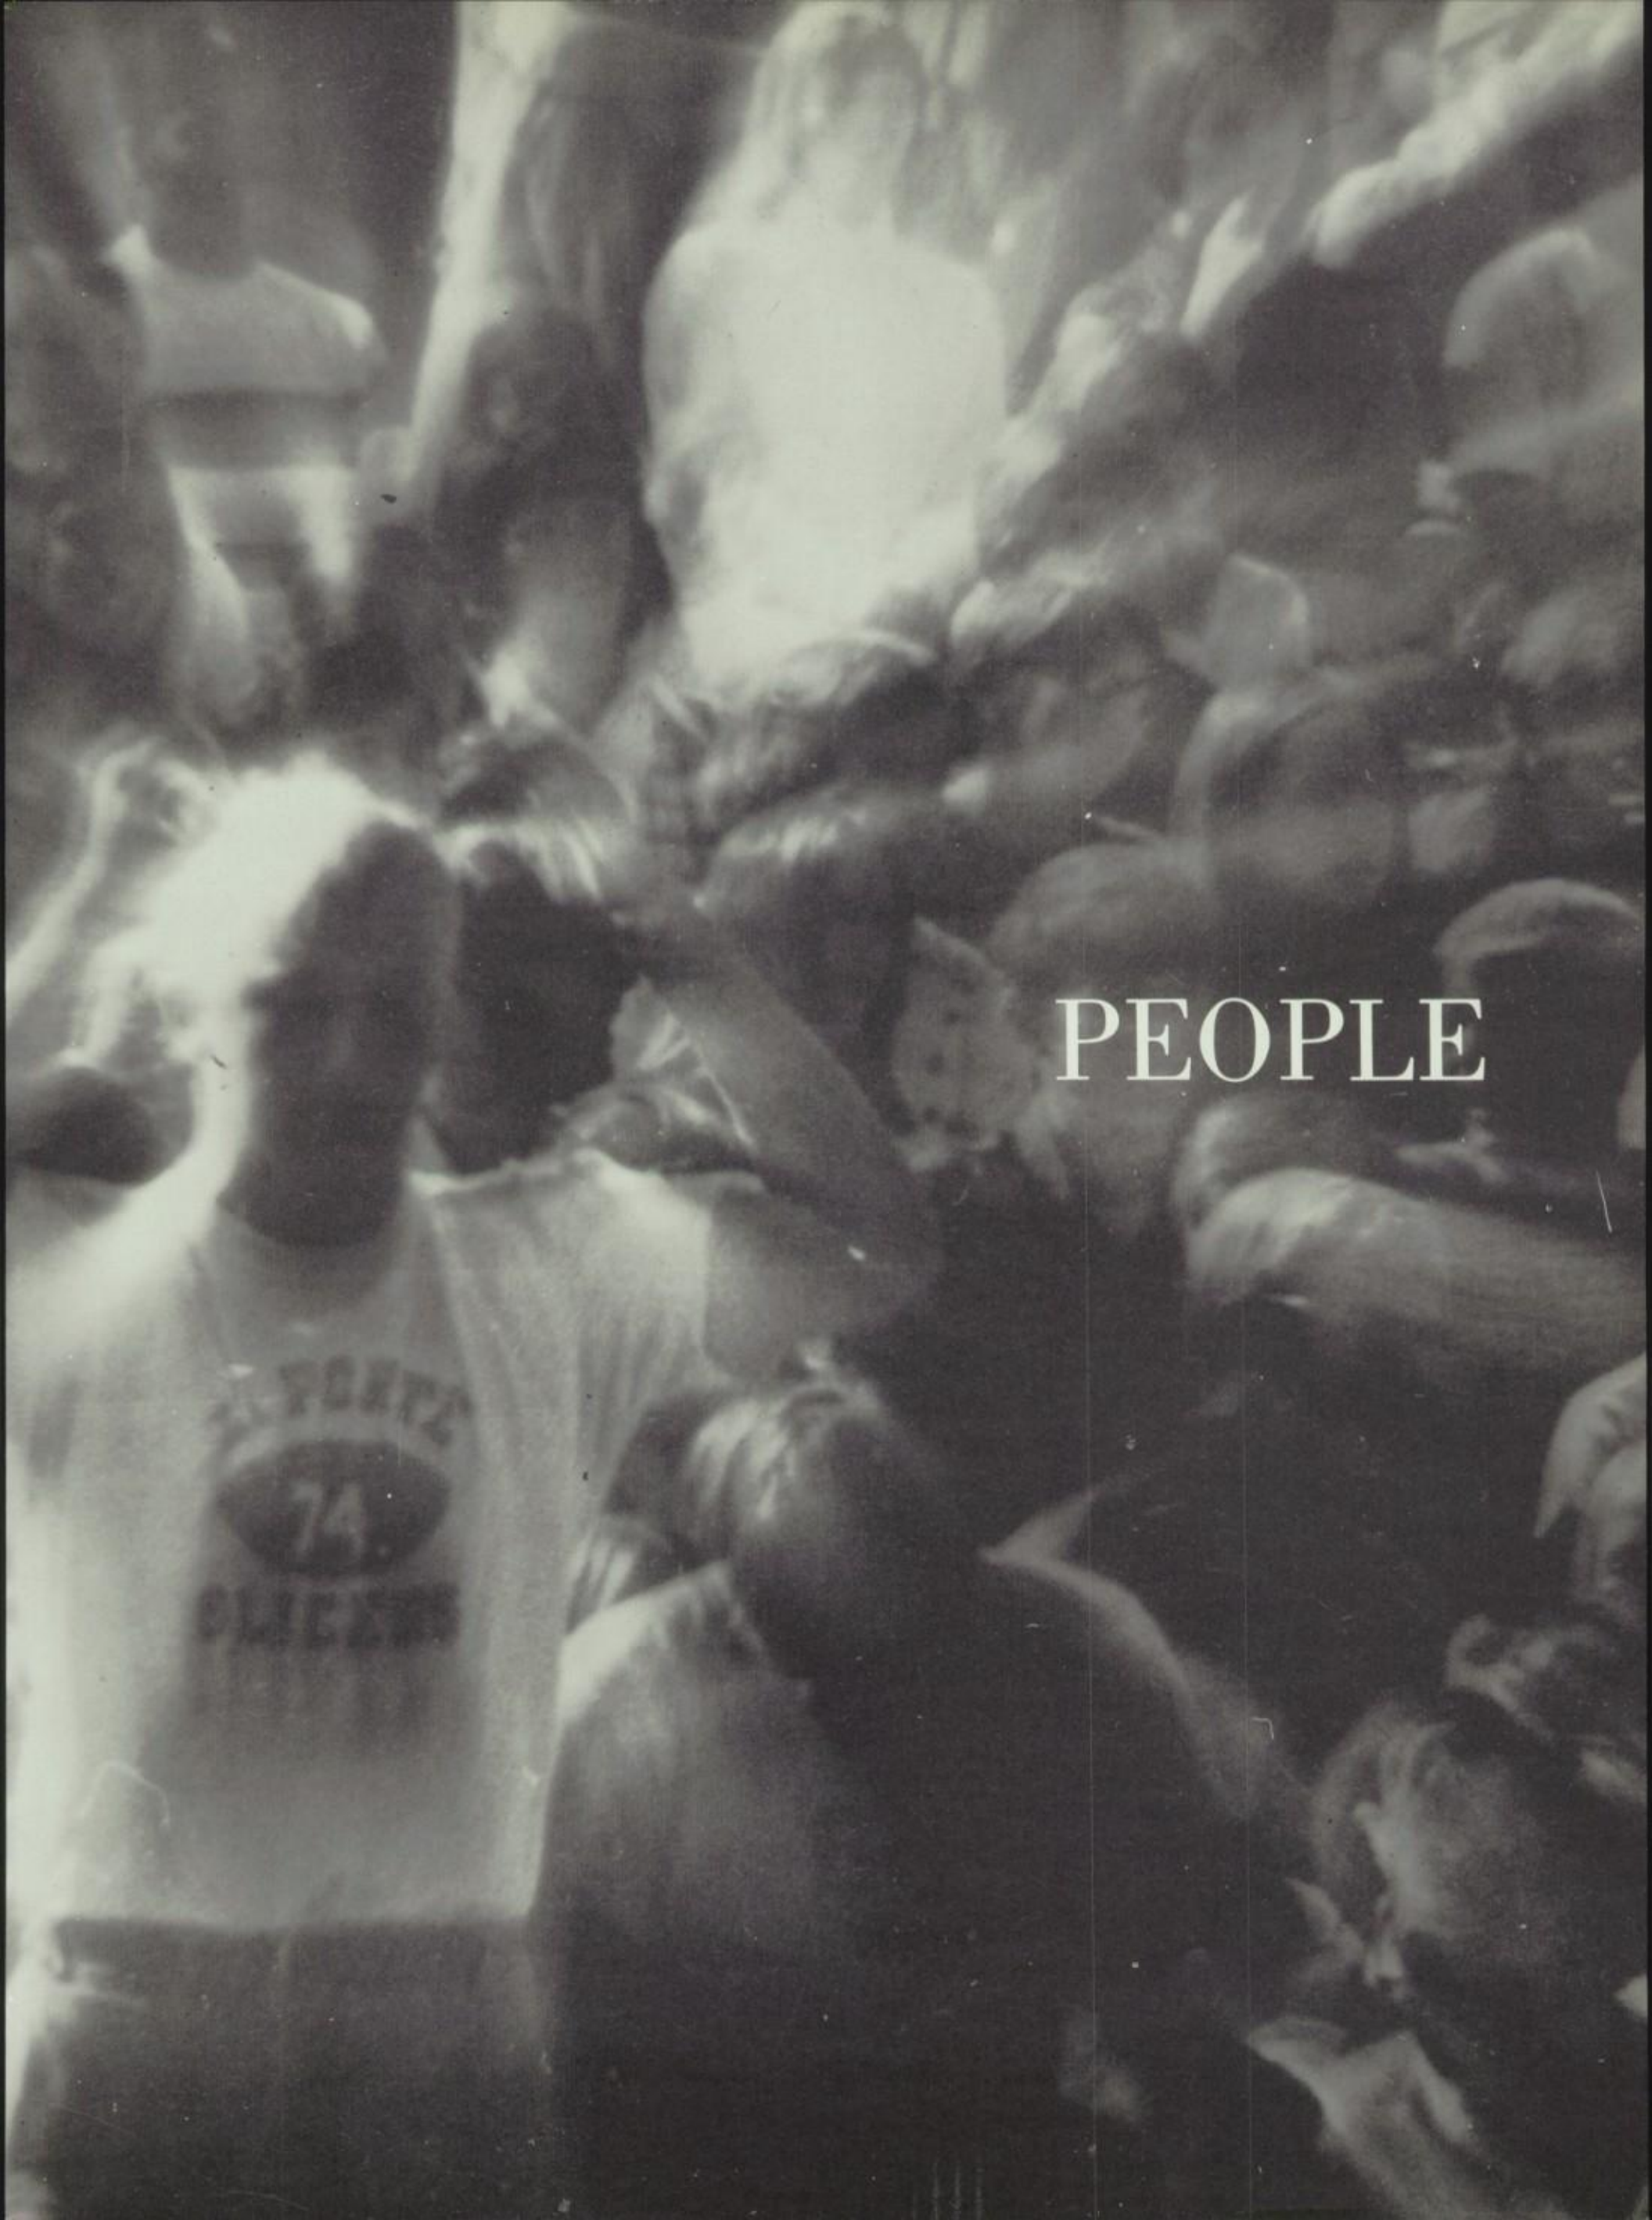
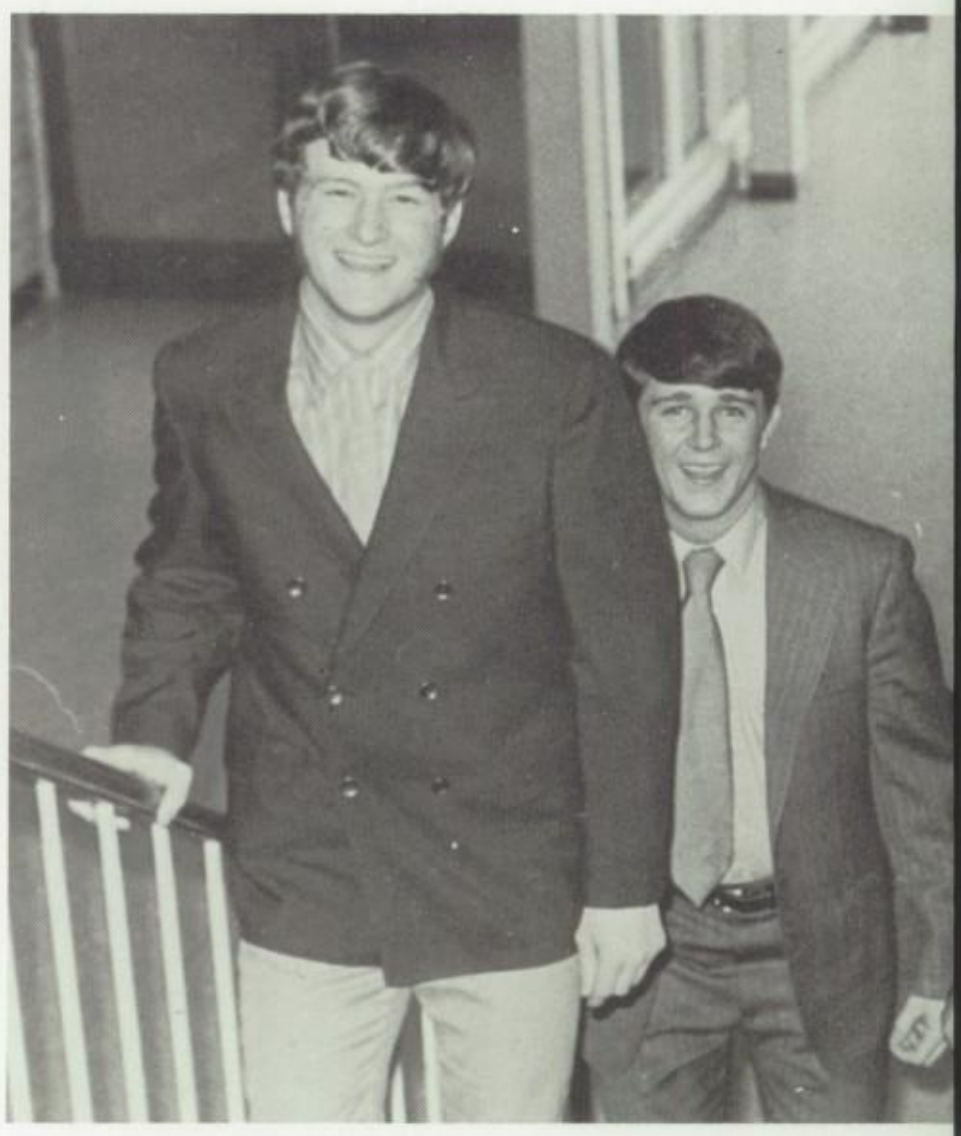
Such instruments as the violin, the cello, the clarinet, and the flute were introduced to every student in grade school. Many students interested themselves with these and began, at that time, their musical career. Seven years of continual practice resulted in their being members of either the LPHS Orchestra or the Symphonic Band. Mr. Foreman conducts the Orchestra and, with Mr. Gentry's assistance, the Symphonic Band. The reward is achieving the goal of every instrument's musical notes fusing into a pleasant melody.



PEOPLE

Class of '71 begins last year at LPHS.

Officers of the Class of 1971 are President Jeff Parker, Vice-president Mark Essling, Treasurer Lauressa White, and Secretary Nancy Lanigan.



Under the capable leadership of their elected officers: President Jeff Parker, Vice-president Mark Essling, Secretary Nancy Lanigan, and Treasurer Lauressa White, the Class of 1971 participated in their last unforgettable year at LPHS.

Combining their resourcefulness, enthusiasm, and spirit, the Seniors enjoyed a memorable year. Among the many important events were Homecoming, the G.R. formal, the plays, and the Prom. The Junior-Senior Banquet broke tradition this year; held at the Civic, the Banquet which is organized by the Senior class each year featured a concert dance with music by the Dreams.

Undoubtably one of the most exciting moments was that unbelievable victory over those Michigan City Red Devils. Finally, after three years of accepting defeat from City, the graduating class will leave LPHS with the satisfaction of burning these Devils and seeing the coveted Victory Bell returned to LPHS.

Seniors enjoyed many club activities, including the New Intra-Club and the Animal section which provided combined cheering with the Pepper Club. Senior Girl and Boy Representatives increased civic awareness in those interested in being one of the representatives.

Class sponsors Mr. Joe Van Mol and Mr. Larry Eastman aided the Seniors in many ways, including money-making projects. Under the guidance of counselors Mrs. Marcile Winebrenner and Mr. Roger Smith, Seniors selected colleges and planned their futures.

As winter faded into spring, the graduating class of 1971 looked forward to the final weeks of their Senior year and the graduation ceremonies which signify the end of their years at LPHS.

Juniors may be number two, but they try harder.

The "Un-Party" candidates were victorious in the balloting for the Junior class officers, winning in the fall election over a large number of competitors. Members of this party were Mike Drayton, President; Reagan Stephens, Vice-president; Jeanne Essling, Secretary; and Laura Zimmerman, Treasurer, for the Class of 1972.

Through the leadership of these elected officers, the Junior class worked diligently on the 1971 Prom, showing their intelligence and imagination. With the help of class sponsors, Mr. John Carnell and Miss Carol Pattee, money-making projects, including a carwash and several after-game dances, were undertaken.

Guided by their counselers, Miss Azalia Knight and Miss Charlene Cosand, the Class of 1972 made their plans for their Senior year at LPHS. Active Junior participation in many extra-curricular activities gave much experience which they will find to be of immense value in the upcoming year. The Class of 1971, although not willing to admit it, graduated, leaving the school in competent hands, based on the Junior participation of this past year.

La Porte High School's junior class was lead by (front) Jeannie Essling, Secretary; (middle) Laura Zimmermann, Treasurer; Reagan Stephens, Vice-president; and (back) Mike Drayton, President.

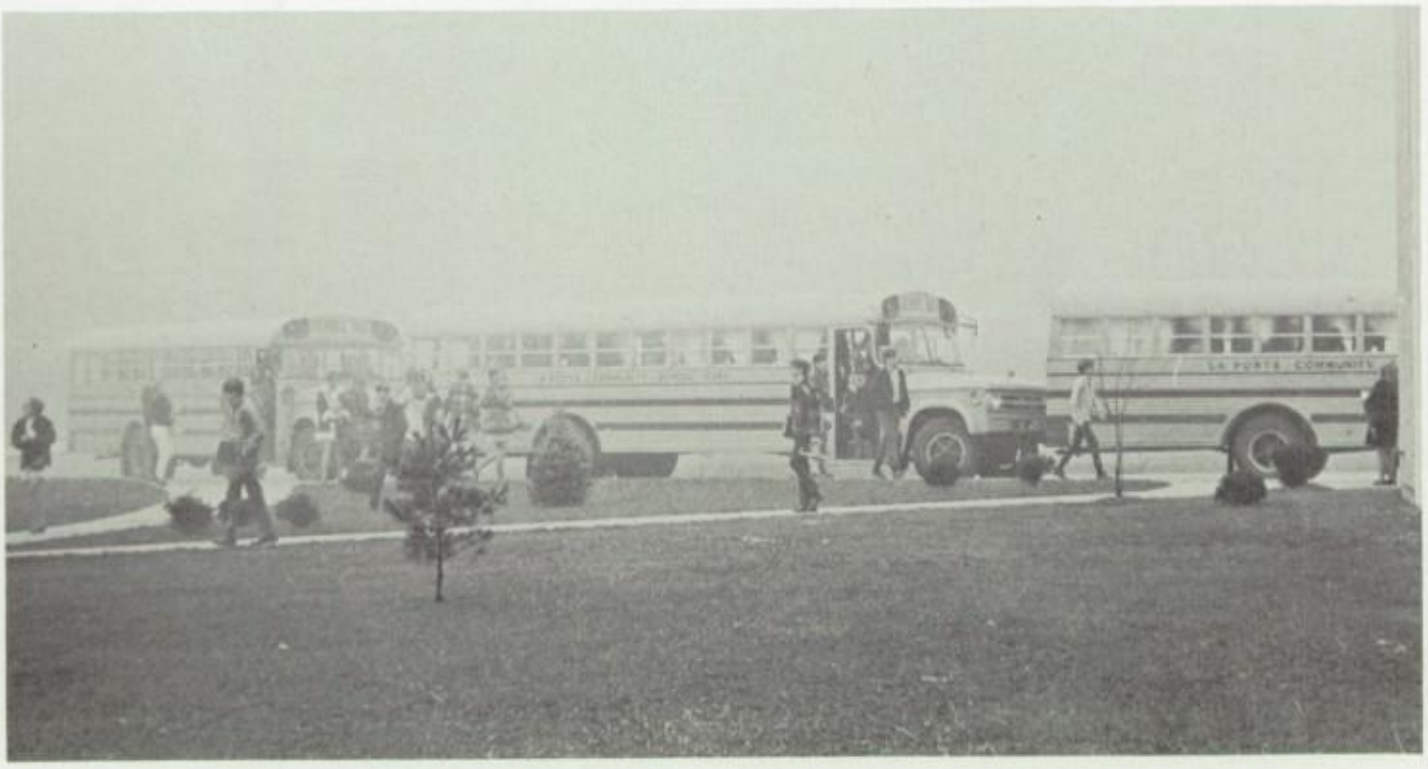
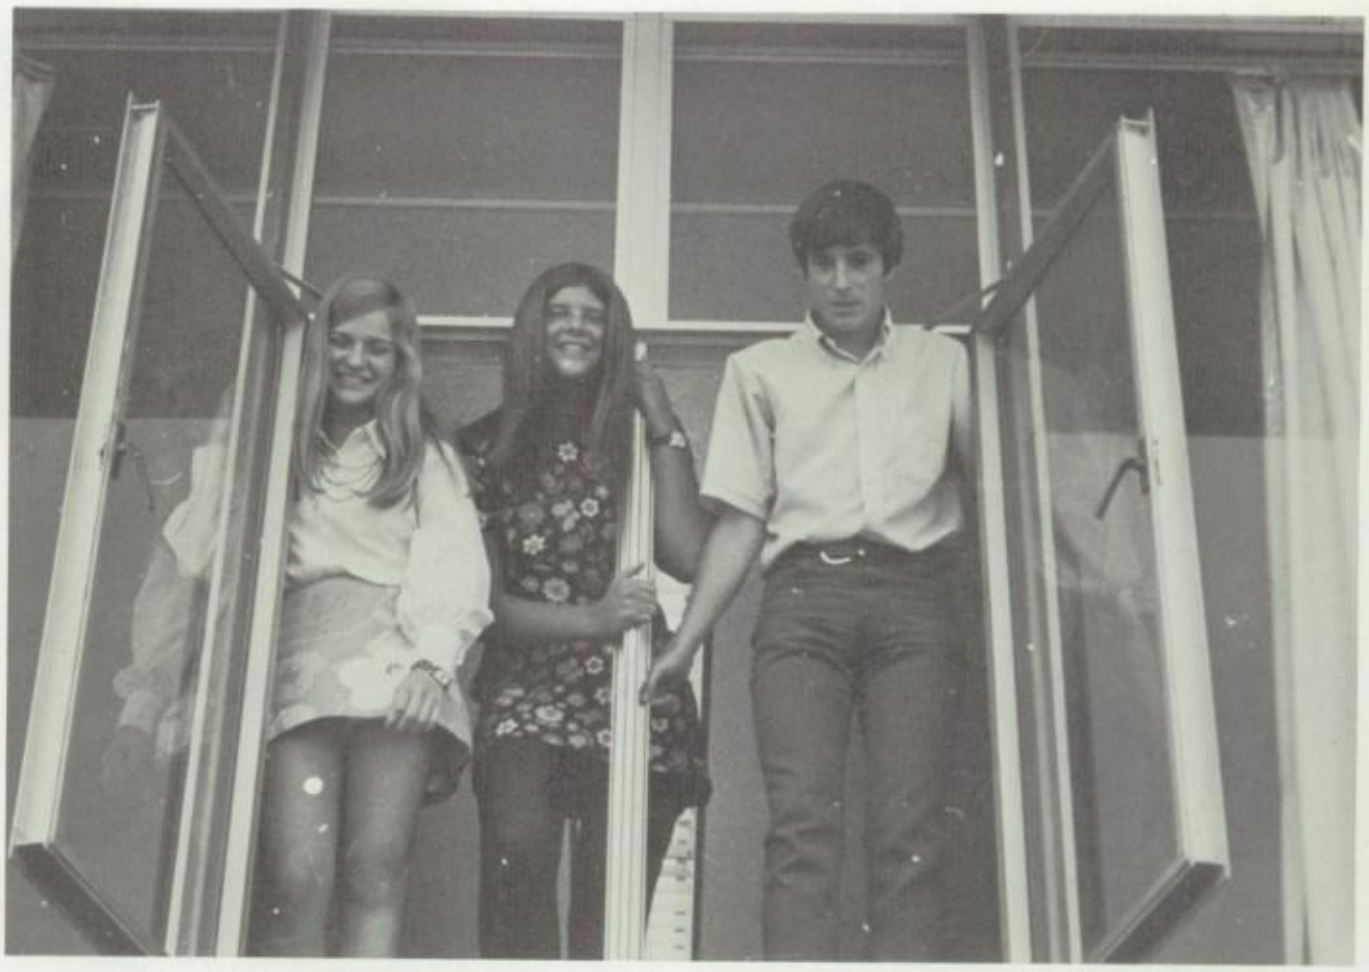
the Juniors prepare for their final ordeal



Gloomy and foggy mornings symbolize the end of winter and the coming of the last days of school.



Looking over their first year at LPHS are Sophomore officers Sue Yates, Secretary-Treasurer, Sam Smith, Vice-President, and Charles Turk, President.

Sophomores start the year off right

Changing from the world of being "top man on the totempole" to being low man is an experience that every new sophomore goes through and survives. This year's class made delicious goodies for our lunches. Sophomores also sponsored dances and served at the Junior-Senior Banquet and the Prom. With the help of their officers, 1970-71 was a memorable year.

Athletic director Mr. Norman Hubner is the hard-working Slicer who is responsible for scheduling all games, meets, matches and tournaments. THANKS NORM!

Our Slicers compile a 6-4 season record playing tough highly regarded opponents.

The Slicer footballers completed the 1970 grid season with a 6-4 win-loss margin. The La Porteans, coached by Stan Klimczak, acquired much respect from the toughest teams in the state. The Slicers finished fourth in the NIC standings, compiling a 2-3 win-loss record.

The Orange-and-Black lost hard fought games to Elkhart, John Adams, Richmond, and arch-rival Michigan City. The Slicers will add New Prairie, S. B. La Salle, and S. B. Washington to the schedule for next season. Gary West, Richmond, and S. B. Jackson have been dropped, according to Athletic Director Norman Hubner.

The efforts of Capt. Bill Konowitz, Al Szawara, and Dan Ruminski won them the honor of being elected to the 1970 All Conference team.

For the rough games the Slicers played, many received awards at the Lions Fall Sports Banquet.

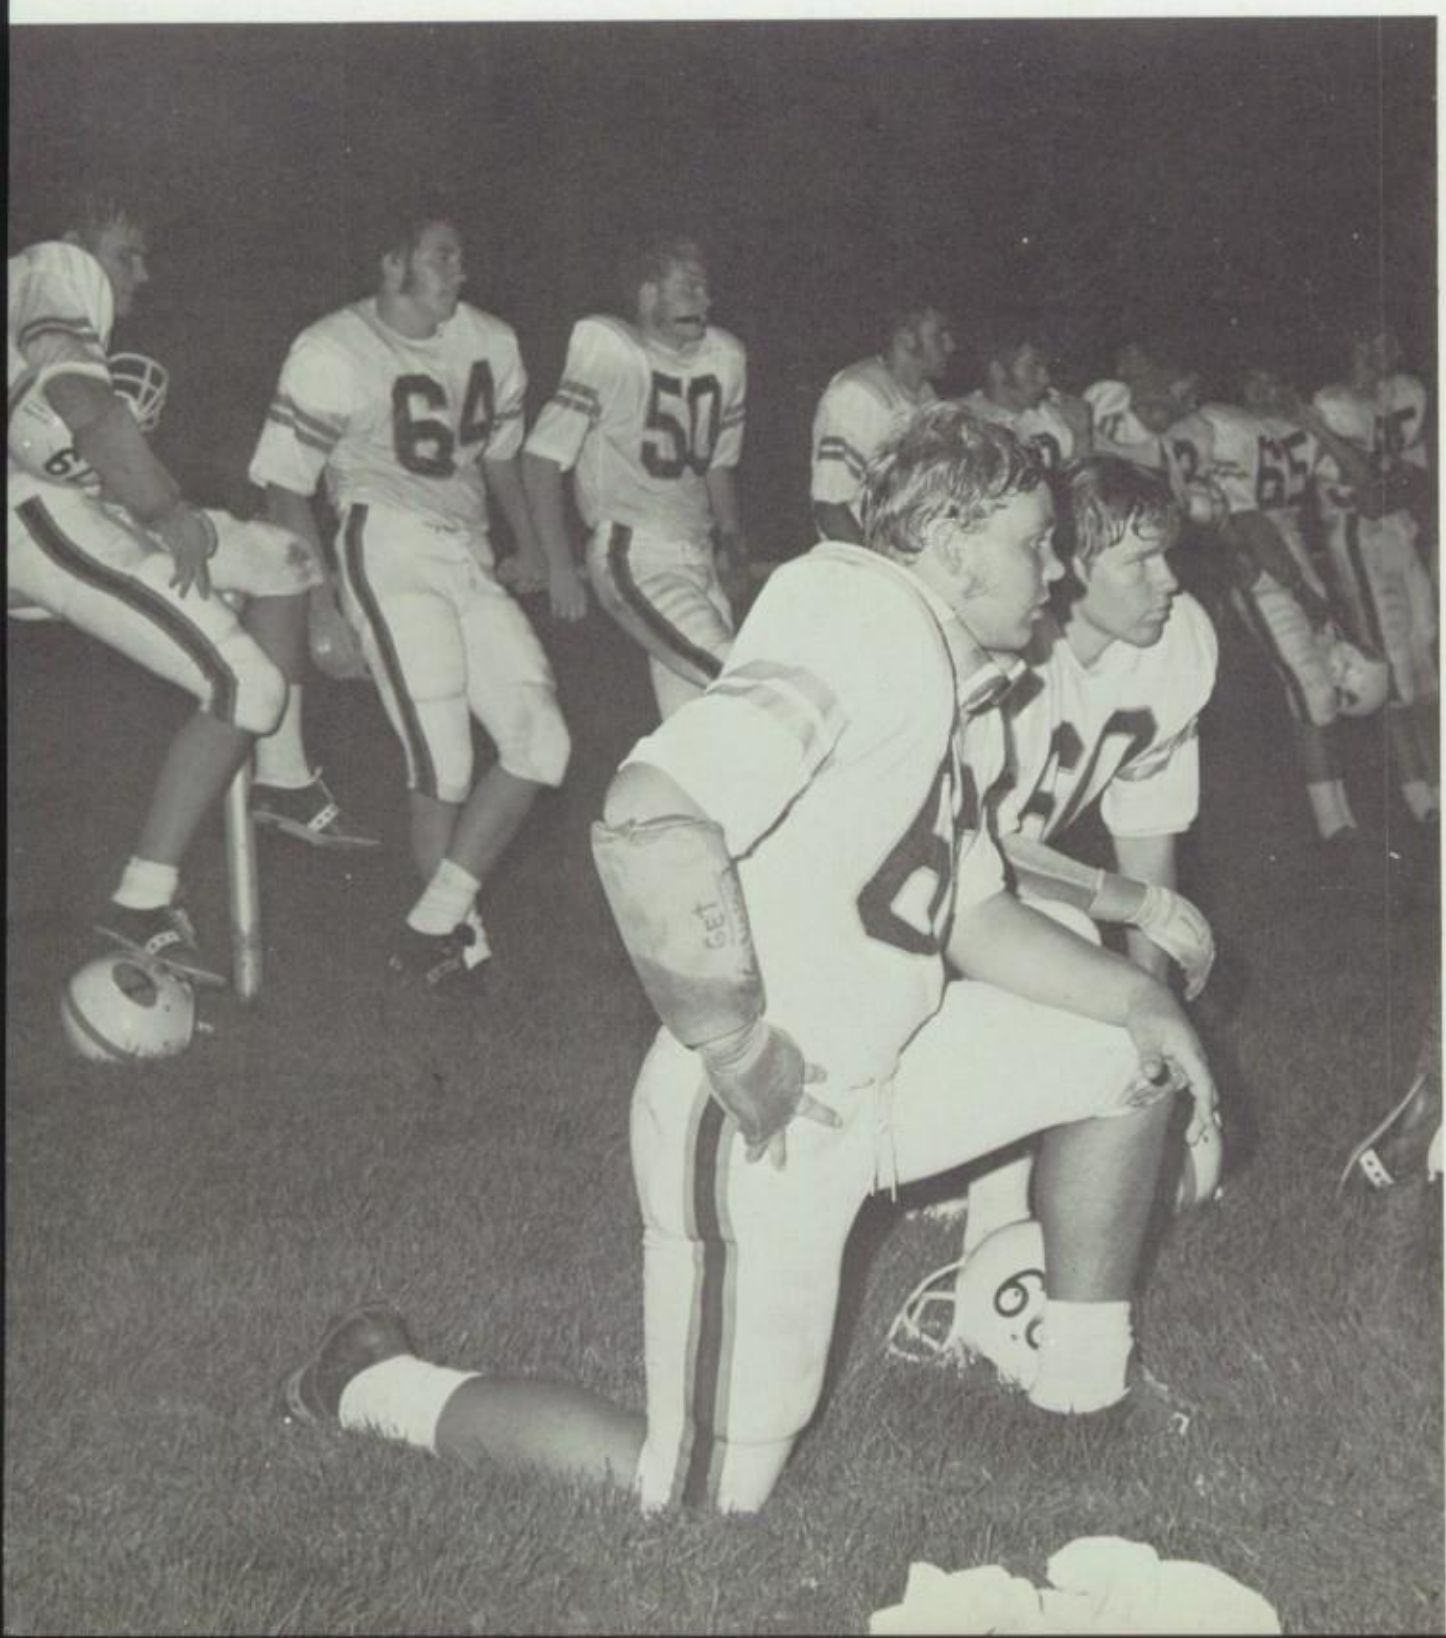
Dave Young and Jerry Spahn, along with other Slicers, look on with great anticipation of the coming year.



Tim (Chip) O'Neil was an important hub in the big Orange-and-Black machine.

Our Slicers record their best rushing total in four years

The 1970 Slicers had a number of outstanding players who gave much to the support of the team.

The Slicers will miss the big two-way performing ends Bill Konowitz and Mark Bauer. Tackles Phil Thornburg, Brad Keller, Joe Sarnosky, and Mark Reed will need to be replaced. Linemen Pete Renner, Tim Bechdol, and Larry Levenhagen will be missed along with defensive backs Dale Jankoviak, Ned Shaffner, and Darwin Oakes. Linemen such as Bob Heck and backs like Chip O'Neil and Steve Sharp are hard to come by.

All these Slicers will be lost through graduation. The question now haunting Head Coach Stan Klimczak is "Will there be enough desire, guts, and determination to carry on the Slicer respect next year when we face new and better opponents?"

Assistant Coach Hoke gives Al Szawara some running tips which proved to be valuable this year. Szawara led the Slicers' running attack with 1077 yards.

Michigan City's defense brings down big Al Szawara (35) with a crash.

Phil Thornburg (74), Tim Church (65), Clint Cook (12), and Darwin Oakes (26) exhibit Slicer fusion with other teams in respect to good sportsmanship.

Head Slicer Coach Stan Klimczak tries to boost team spirit.

LPHS Cheerleaders help to boost spirit.

Slicer cheerleaders were able to keep school spirit alive in the 1970-1971 sports. Along with the help of the Pom Pon girls, a responsive student body, and the new Slicer mascot, they were able to provide the necessary encouragement the Slicers needed to be victorious. A special thanks should be given to such a devoted group.

Senior Kathy Chroback leads the student body in a cheer at a pep session.

This year's 1970-1971 cheerleading squad was lead by Senior Carol DeBruyne.

Slicer Netters have outstanding season.

The orange and black Racketers started their 1970 season campaign on a bad note as they lost their first two matches; however, not being discouraged by this poor start, the Slicer Netters bounced back and won their next twelve matches in a row. They ended the season ranked number two in the Northern Indiana Conference, placed ninth in the Lafayette Doubles Tournament, and placed third in the NIC Singles Tournament. The Netters also displayed their ability on the court by winning the Sectional team title.

Senior Captain Brian Graham compiled a 19-3 mark at number one singles. Senior Jim Abbott compiled a 16-4 singles mark as he, Graham, and junior star Jim Sampson (14-4) defeated every No. 1, 2, and 3 player in the NIC. Sophomores Ron Samford (11-5) and Tom Replogle (13-2) also lost only once each to NIC opponents.

Juniors Jerry Kewley (5-3) and Larry G r a h a m (2-1), sophomore Charlie Turk (3-6), and freshman Jeff Ogle (6-1) loom large in Coach LeRoy's future Slicer net plans.

The Most Valuable Player, Brian Graham, and the Most Improved Player, Tom Replogle, received their awards at the Lion's banquet.

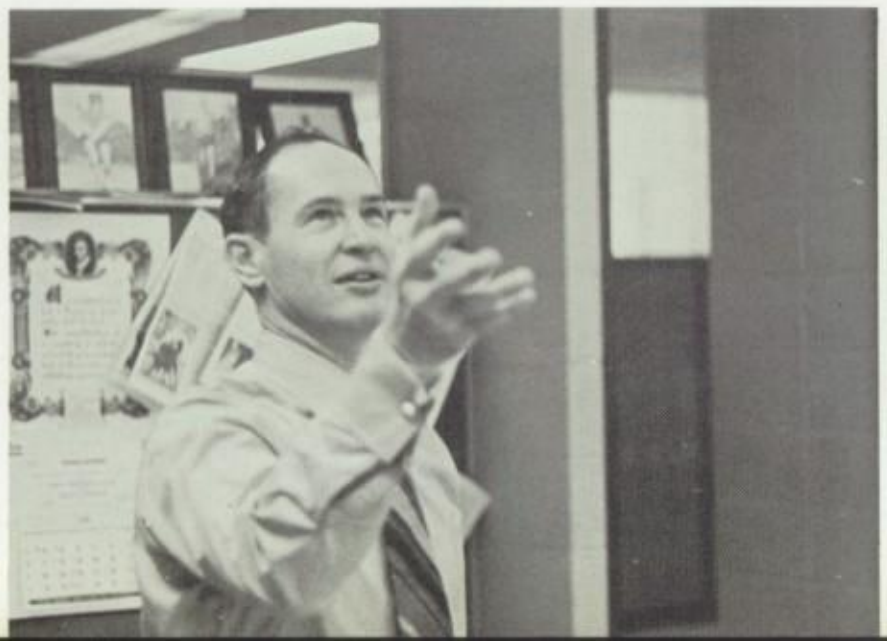
Coach LeRoy was very much pleased with the performance of the Netters in 1970 as he guided them to an excellent 12-3 winning season.



At number one singles was Brian Graham who was a valuable asset to the team, winning many games by making impossible shots such as this one.

The Sectional Title goes to the Netters

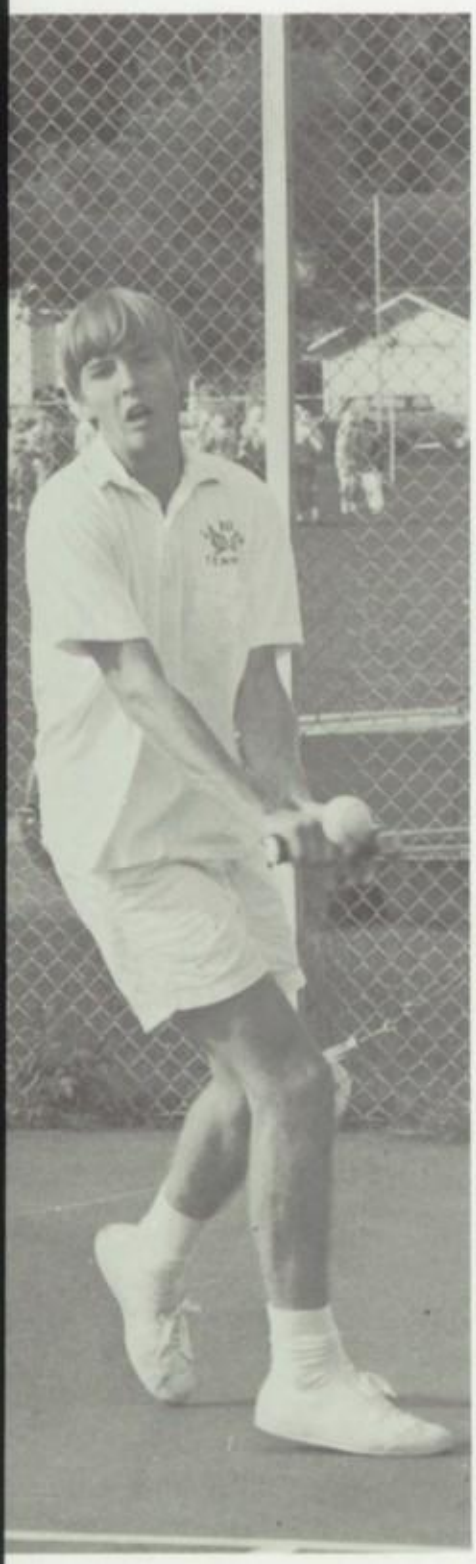
During one of their finest seasons the Slicer Netters, besides compiling a fine record, received the South Bend Sectional team crown. This was due mainly to the excellent come-from-behind victory by Brian Graham. This not only gave Graham the Sectional singles championship, but also gave the Slicers the Sectional title.

As a result of winning the Sectional title the Netters received this fine trophy.

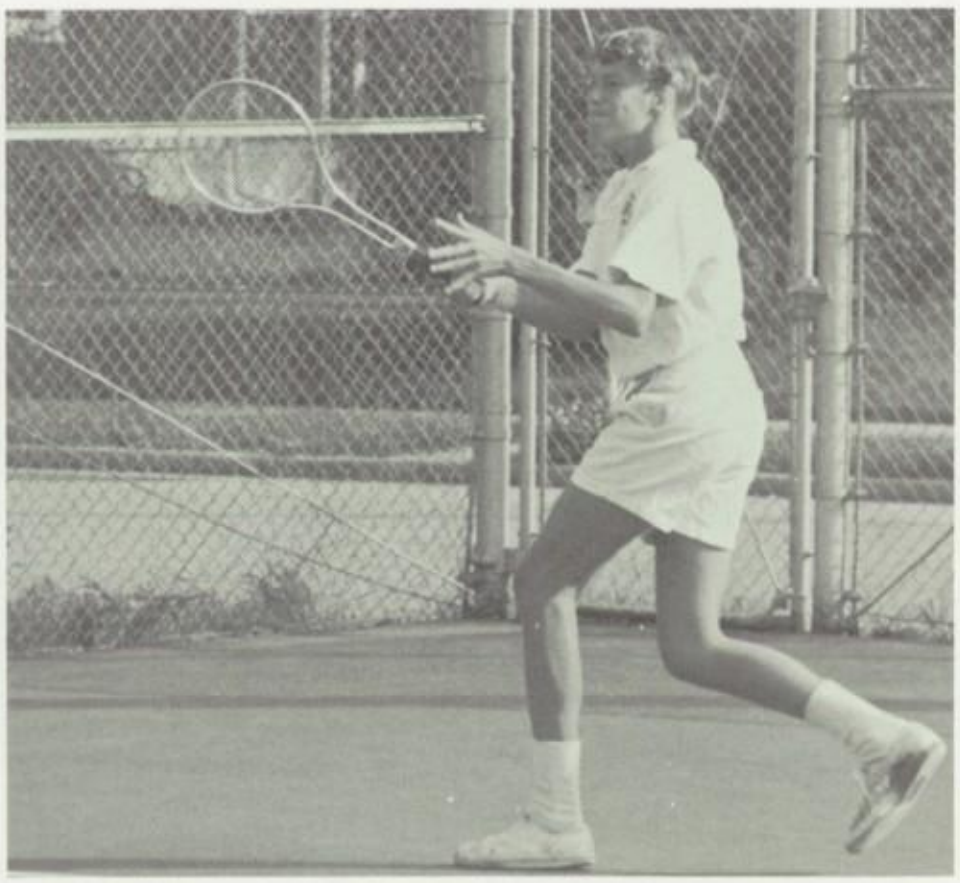
Jim Sampson made some valuable contributions to the Slicer Netters.

Members who contributed to the tremendous success of the tennis team are (left to right): Jim Sampson, Jim Abbott, Brian Graham, and Tom Replogle.

A new innovation was introduced to the tennis team this year—tennis ball girls. They are very helpful to Coach LeRoy's Netters. Members this year were (front) Betty Pate, Kathy Amos, Charleen Essling, and Joy Tolbert; (back) Karen Williams, Jan Ramsay, Judy Connelly, and Mary Grau.

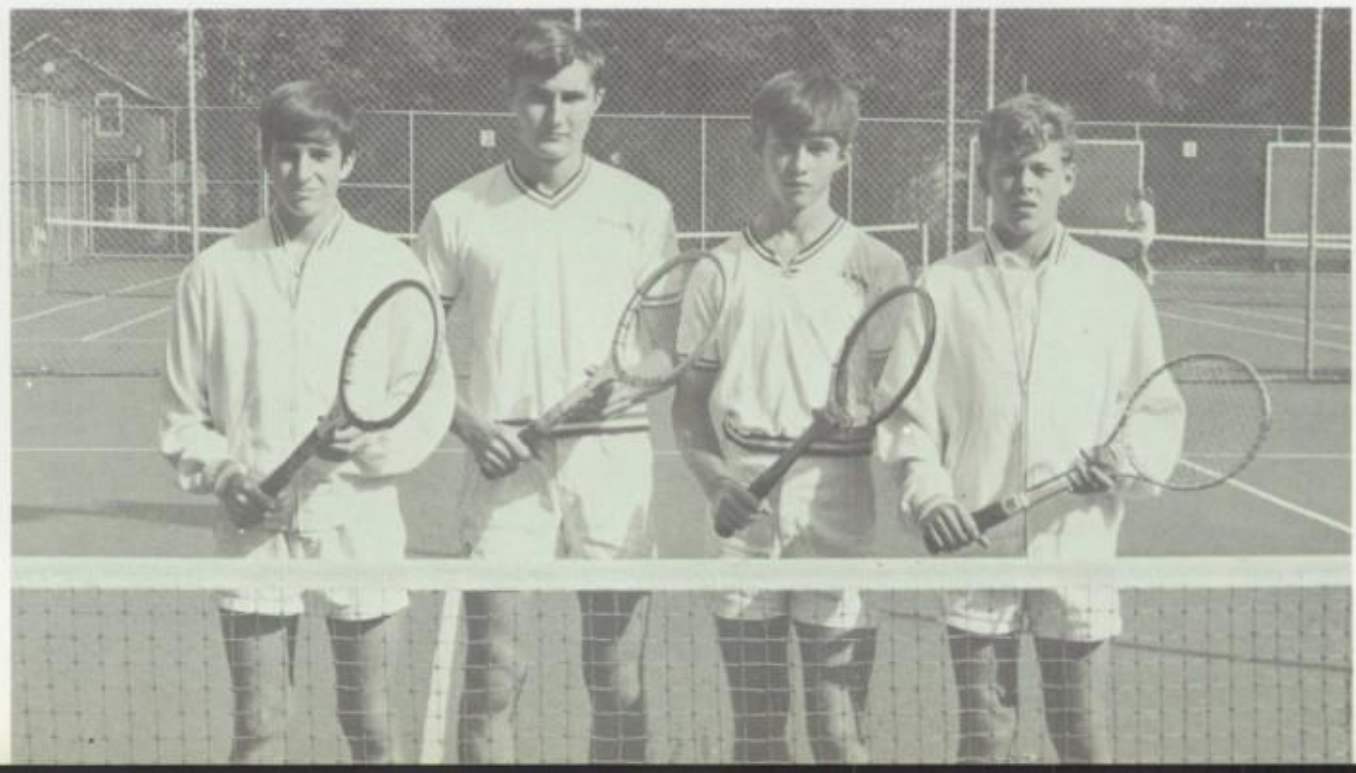


Senior Jim Abbott was a very tough competitor this season.

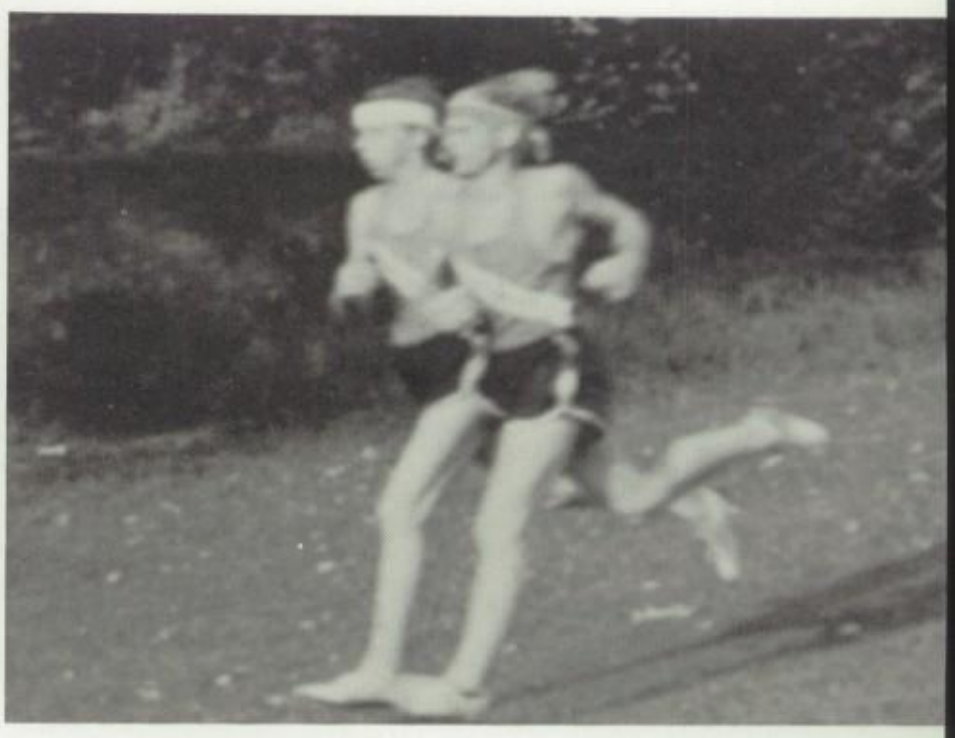


Ron Samford helped the team by compiling a fine 11-5 singles mark.

Some of the members of the tennis team are pictured here. Coach LeRoy feels that they will be very valuable to the Slicer Netters in future years. They are Charlie Turk, Larry Graham, Jerry Kewley, and Ron Samford.



Senior Dave McGarvey takes a rest after completing a tiring run. He turned in several fine runs during the season.



Cross Country is a sport which requires great durablity as shown by these two team mates during one of the long runs.

Cross Country has excellent 11-7 year

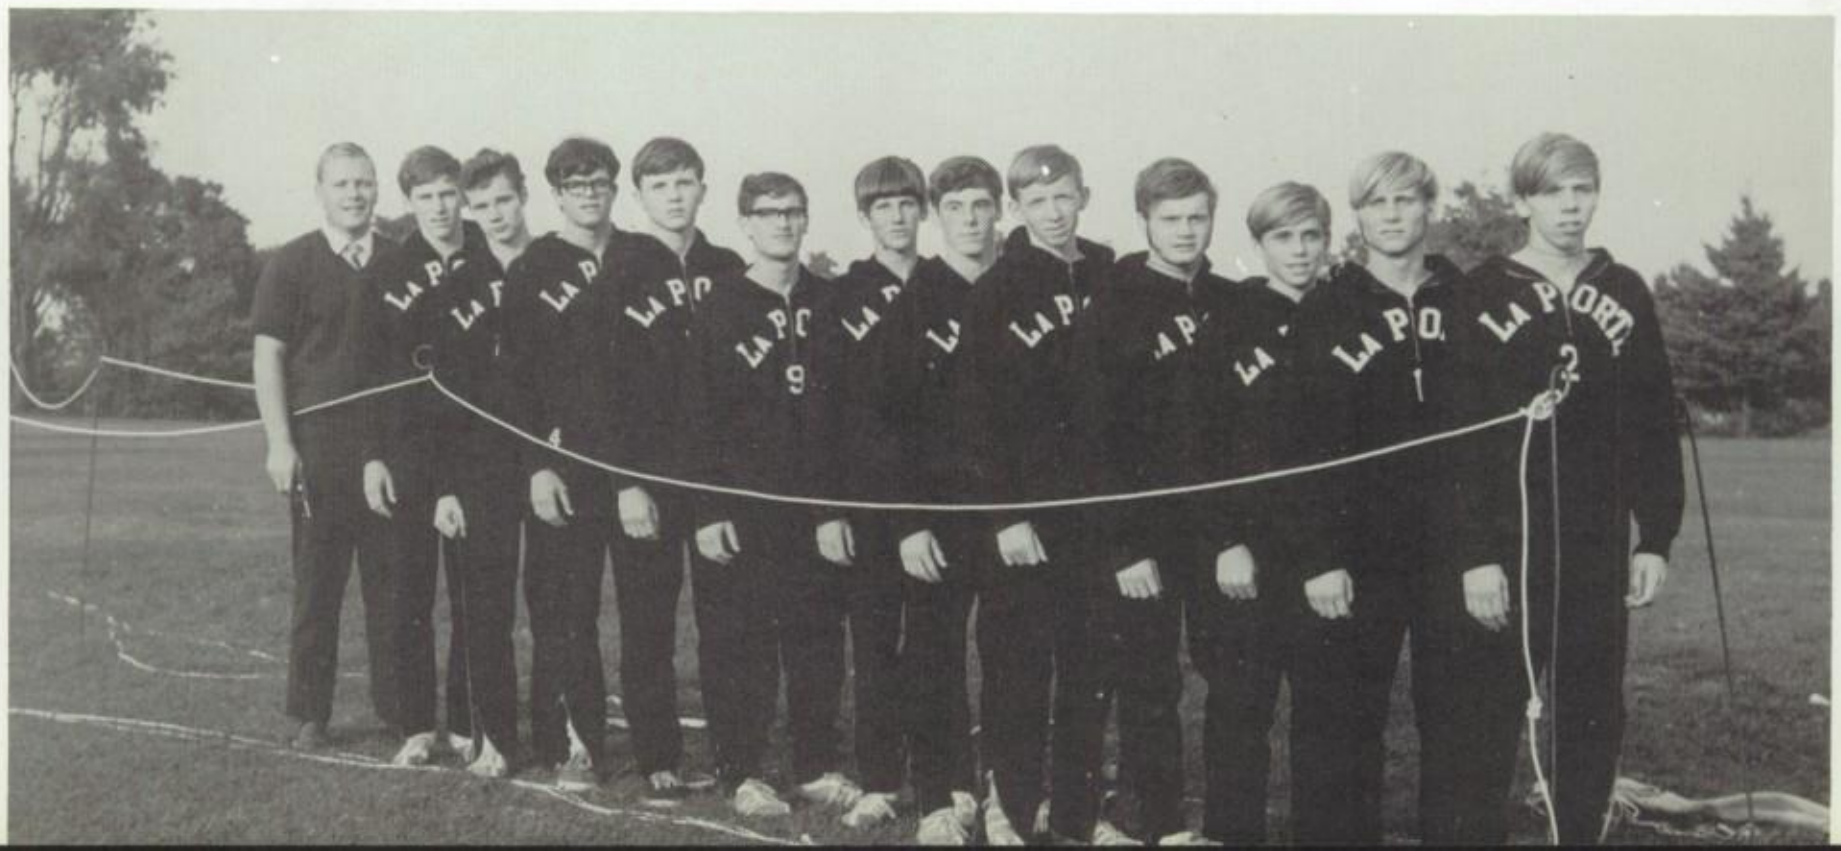
The 1970 Cross Country team had one of its finest years. They had an 11-7 overall win-loss record and they were 4-2 in the NIC.

The Harriers finished fifth in the New Prairie Invitational, sixth in the South Bend Sectional, and eighth in the LaPorte Invitational. The Cross Country team also did well in the NIC, as they finished in the number three spot.

Several of the team members were honored at the Lion's Fall Sports Banquet. The award of Most Valuable Player went to Senior Brad Arndt. Coach Collins stated that Arndt had indeed earned this award as he helped the Slicers by finished fifth in the Sectional and ninth in the Regional. Gary Orszulak received the honor of Most Improved Player. The Captain's Award was given to Mike Russ.

"Skip" Collins did a good job in his second season as coach.

Coach Skip Collins, first on the left, was pleased with the oustanding performance of the 1970 Cross Country team and had much praise for them. The Harriers had an excellent record which resulted from the combined efforts of: Dave McGarvey, Chris Smith, Jim Mansfield, Gary Orzulak, Chris Fenning, Dave Hucksted, Ron Alban, Wayne Thompson, Phil Droege, Brain Tucker, Brad Ardnt, and Captain Mike Russ.



One of the valuable seniors who will be missed is Brad Ardnt.

It's the end of another long meet for senior Phil Droege.

Progression was the key to Cager's year

The 1970-71 Slicers should be known as the team that wouldn't give up. They wound up the season with a 10-13 record, after being bogged down by a 3-9 mark at one point. Of course, the highlight of the year was the big 77-74 upset of arch rival Michigan City. Another impressive moment was the win over Goshen as the cagers scored 100 points and set a school record.

Junior Mike Benjamin, who received the award of "Most Valuable Player," was top in scoring (16.1), rebounding (10.8), and field goal shooting (.469). Senior Mark Bauer was named recipient of the Dr. Kesling Scholarship and was named "Most Improved Player."

The season ended abruptly with a 101-94 loss to Michigan City in the Sectional, but it proved to be the end of a very exciting year, which will not be forgotten by anyone who was at L.P.H.S.

Fighting down from the backboards with the rebound is Senior Tom Ingram.

Hurrying to recover the ball for the Slicers is Co-Captain Mark Yates. Denny Hines looks on.

Co-Captain Mark Bauer goes up for a basket and two more points for the Orange and Black cagers.

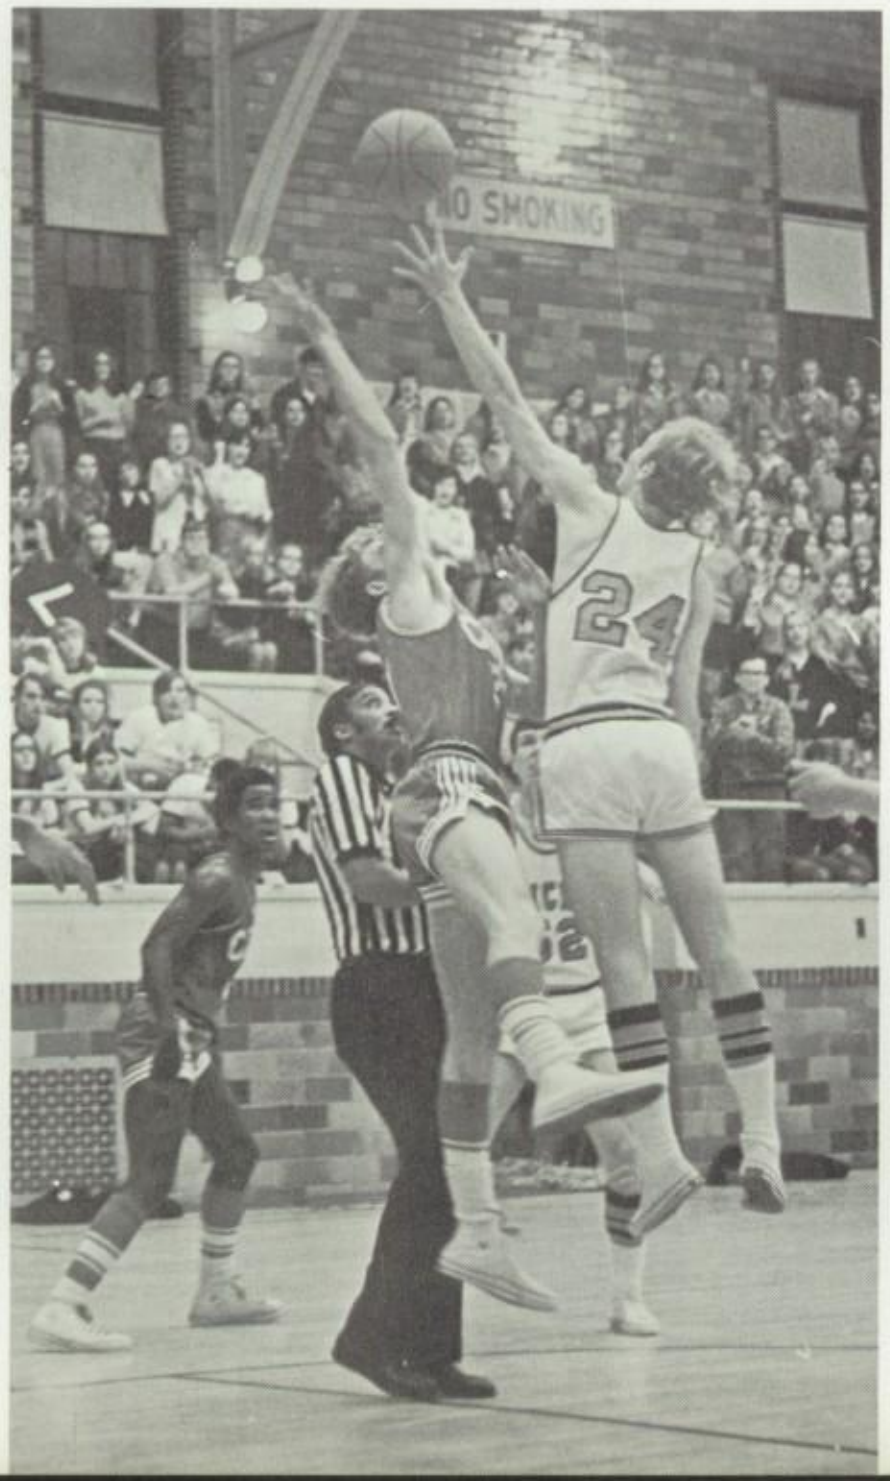
Junior Dave Ott tries for a basket on this jump shot.

After the big victory, Jim Petrila and Steve Hines are shown carrying the Bell down the hall to its resting place in the display case.

Before the game, the Civic was filled with cries of "Bring back the BELL!"

Our Slicers burn those Red Devils!

Denny Hines (24) tries to jump a little higher than his City opponent.



Not many students will ever forget the night of January 29, 1971—the night the Slicers stunned the mighty Michigan City Red Devils. The Civic was filled with tenseness from the opening tip-off as the score remained close throughout the entire game. The preliminary game ended in victory for the Little Slicers over City's Pink Imps, but the best was yet to come. Between games the fans yelled with all their might and continued to boost the Slicers during the whole game. The end of the first quarter saw La Porte down by four points. The half ended with a six point gap in City's favor, but the score became 54-53 at the end of the third quarter, as La Porte came within point one of the state's third team. The Slicer fans hardly believed their eyes as the Slicers "poured it on" in the fourth quarter. The seconds kept ticking away and the unbelievable seemed to be coming true. With three seconds left in the game, La Porte had the game "wrapped up," finally overcoming the City basketball hex. The silence of the City fans only added to La Porte's delight. Following the game, the crowd poured out onto the floor with shrieks of "We've got the Bell!" The final score—La Porte 77, Michigan City 74! Junior Mike Benjamin was high scorer for La Porte with 27 points, but the victory was a true team effort. La Porte had not beaten the Devils in basketball for seven years. The win was especially meaningful to the Seniors, who had never had an opportunity to see the Bell before, but everyone in the school will always remember the night that La Porte defeated the Red Devils and brought back the coveted Victory Bell.

The Michigan City NEWS-DISPATCH of the following day told the whole story!

The whole town was floating on air after the City game, and so was Damon Cash—during the game.

Are these fans crazy? Perhaps they are just a little bit, but the scoreboard in the background should explain everything—La Porte 77, Michigan City 74!! Hurrah for the Slicers!

Mark Bauer crashes through the hoop in eager anticipation of a victory.

As teammate Mike Benjamin looks on, Curt Bauer tries to get around his opponents from City.

Senior Dick Strieter struggles to free himself from a tough opponent. Strieter was a fine heavyweight wrestler for the Slicers.

Slicer Wrestlers win

The 1970-71 La Porte Wrestling squad came back strong to win the last four matches of the season. The squad showed great promise at the beginning of the year, but injuries soon plagued the Slicers. In the last part of football season Tim Ford tore cartilage in his knee, putting him out for the rest of the wrestling season. Coach Larry McKeever's hopes continued to be dwindled when the first wrestling match of the season arrived. Senior Steve Bernacchi received torn cartilage in his sternum during his match. Junior Scott Williamson broke his leg in the 185 pound weight class. Both wrestlers were out of commission for the rest of the season. Dave Young had an acute case of broncitis which prevented him from participating in a few critical matches. Many of Coach McKeever's hopeful sparks were smothered this year due to injury.

Coach McKeever took his squad to the Colombus Wrestling Tournament. The Slicers finished sixth at Columbus with forty-one points. Seniors Dick Strieter and Bruce Kegebein finished first and fourth respectively, at Colombus while Juniors Gary Bunch, Glen Johnson, Steve Leonard, and Dave Young came home with three thirds and one fourth. This was a real fine showing for the Slicers.

The Slicer Wrestlers finished eleventh with sixteen points in the Sectional. Slicers placing in the Sectional were: Gary Bunch, fourth, and Dick Strieter, third. Slicer Wrestlers took seventh in the Conference with twenty-eight points. Placing for the Slicers were: Bryan Tucker, third; Gary Bunch, third; Bruce Kegebein, fourth; Dave Young, third; and Dick Strieter, third.

The Slicers' final record was 5-6-2. Coach Larry McKeever foresees a very bright season next year, providing injuries do not haunt the Slicers again next year; let's hope they don't.

The team tied for third place with Elkhart in the Munster Relays. They won the La Porte Invitational and the Sectional. Placing third in the Penn Relays was also among their achievements.

In state competition Jim Murray placed sixth in diving. Captain Tom Larson placed sixth in the 200-yard individual and sixth in the 100-yard butterfly at the state meet.

The Clockstoppers aided the team again this year. The DOG PADDLE, which was sold by the Clockstoppers, kept everyone up on all the current happenings of the swim team.

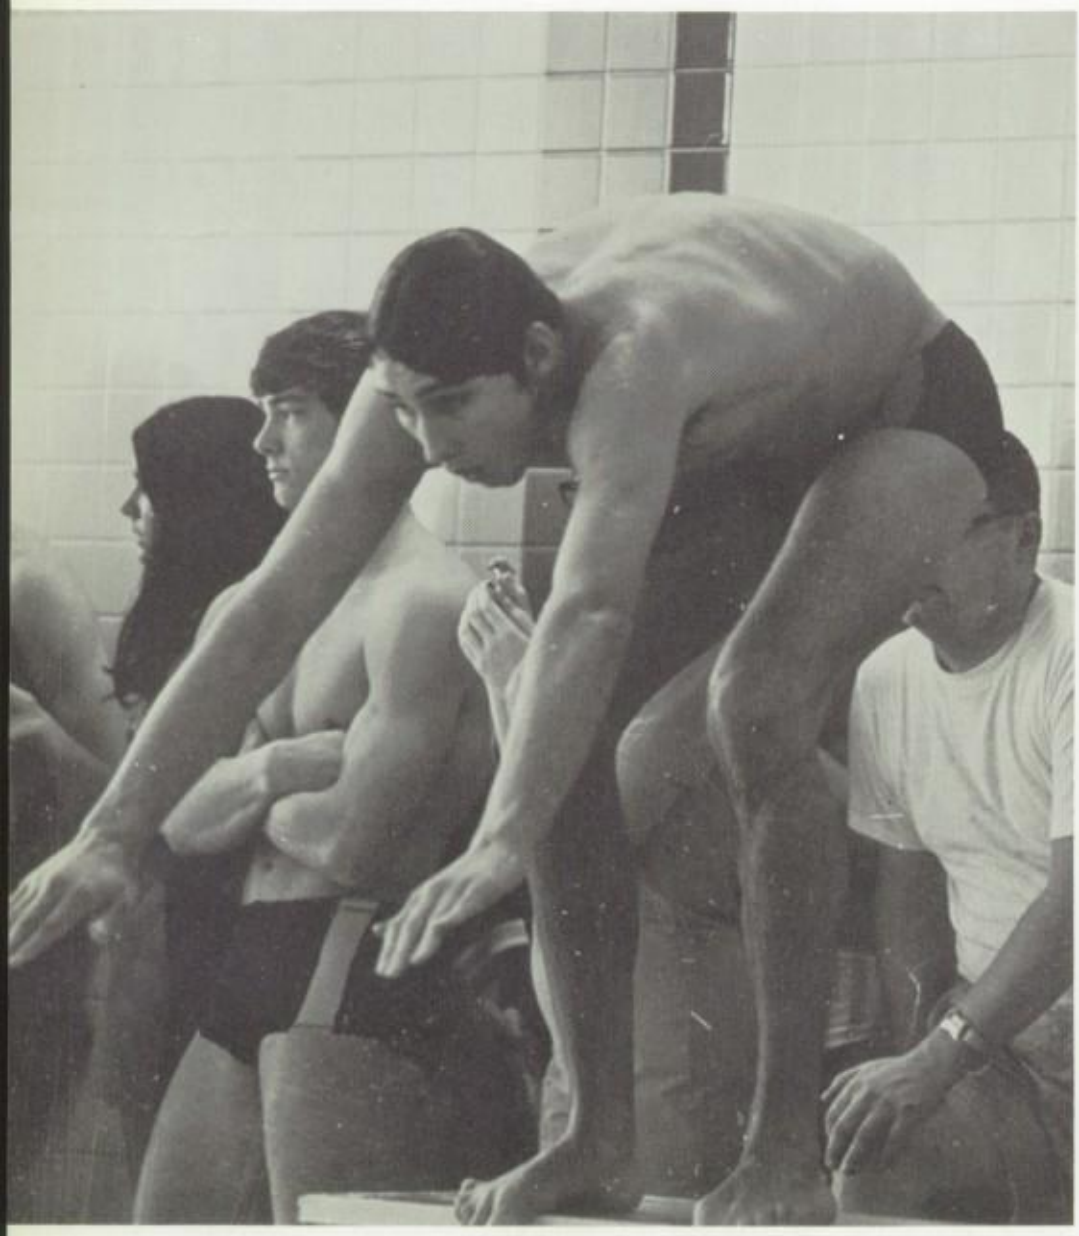
LPHS Swimmers win



Senior Lenny Gray readies himself for the starting gun.

Slicer swimmer standout, senior Tom Larson, receives much praise from La Porte High School principal, Mr. Jack Hyde.

Slicer swimming coach, Norm Tonsoni, gives 'big' Mel Kovenz special advice as to how to conquer tough Slicers' opponents.

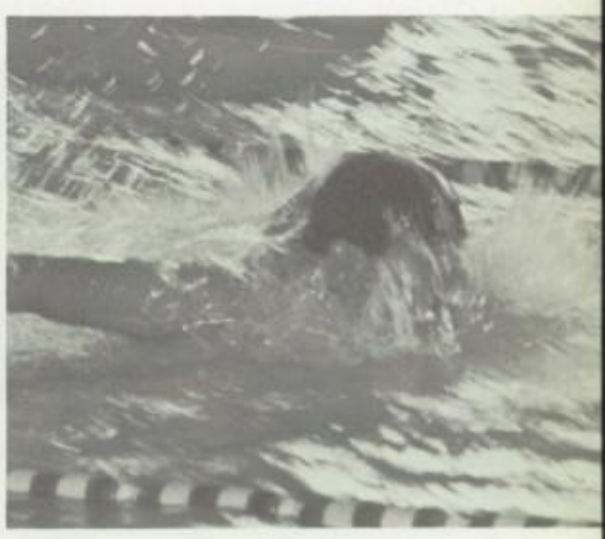
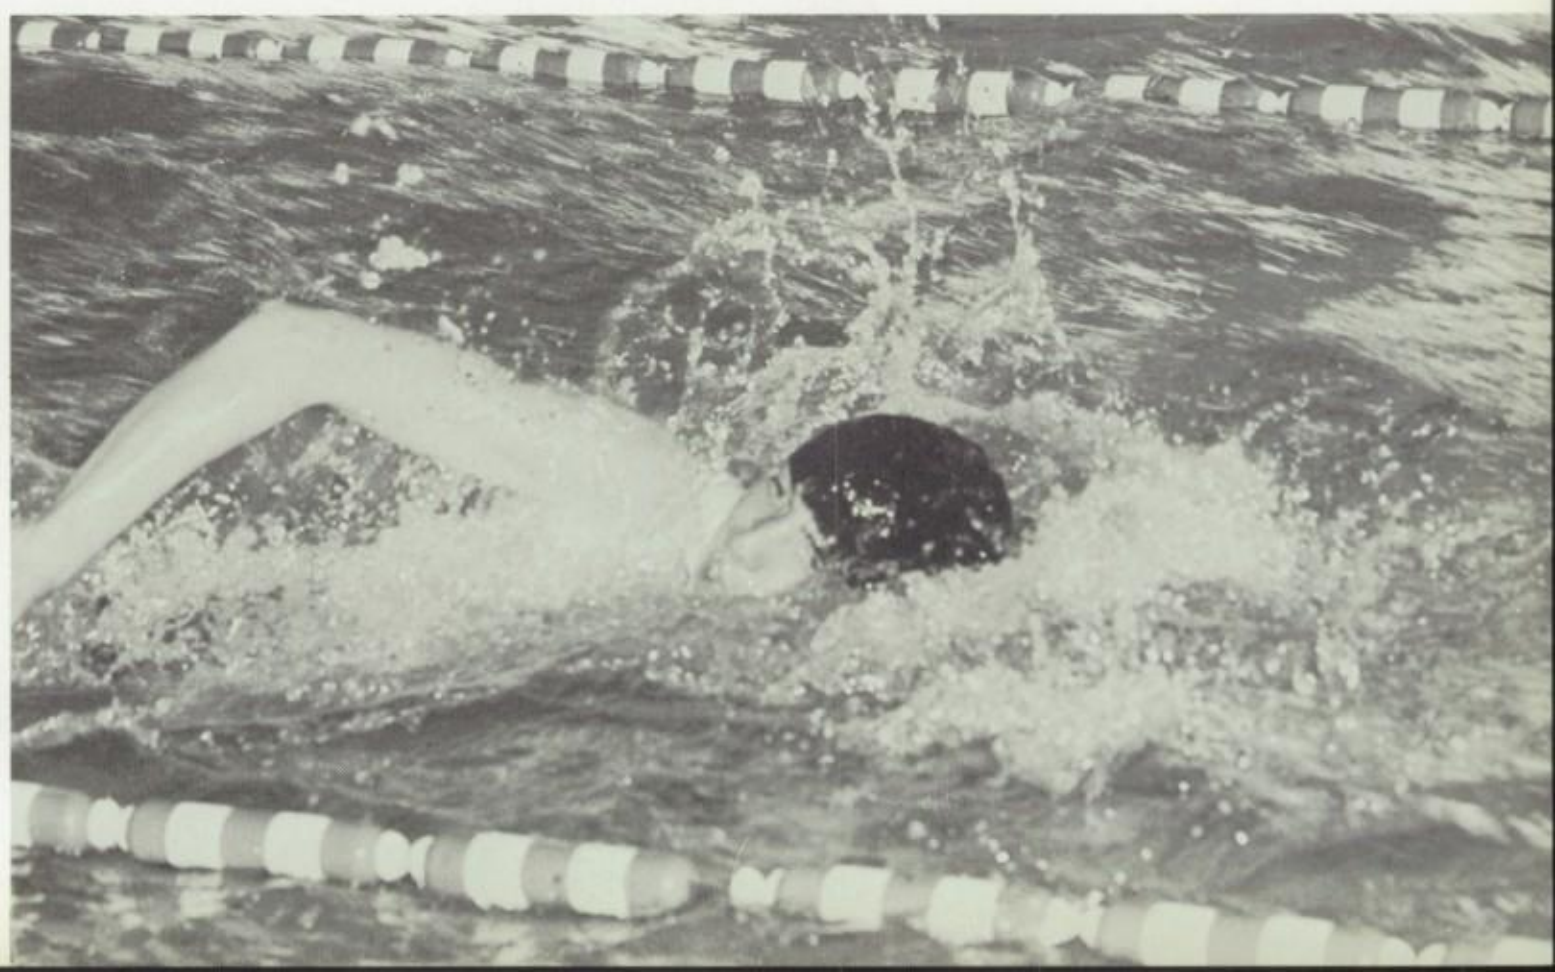
sectional title by overpowering tough foes.

Junior Rick Kunze is a promising hope for next year's squad. Here he swims for a Slicer victory.



Mystery swimmer? No, it's super swimmer, John Dodd.

Coach Norm Tonsoni will depend heavily on freshman, David De Bruyne, as being a spark for victory next year.



Senior Tom Ingram, number 17, watches powerlessly the action in the outfield.

Our 1971 LaPorte Slicer baseball team dominated the sectional games!

Head Coach Ken Schreiber, the Winningest Baseball Coach in the history of La Porte High School, with a 234-57-6, spurred his Slicers to an excellent 24-4-1 season. Coach Schreiber, along with Assistant Coaches Dave Parsell and Dave Reed, led the Slicers to a Championship in the Sectional race and did very well in the Regional competition. Coach Schreiber led his 1971 Slicer Team to one of their finest in his twelve years of coaching at L.P.H.S.

Some of the "superbs" for the Slicers were Tim (Chip) O'Neil, Jeff Hubner, Mark Yates, Denny Mantick, and Tom King. The rest of the Slicer team was great. The Slicer record speaks for itself; with out teamwork of the players and coaches, the Slicer record could or would not be as great as it was. Slicers making the All-Conference team were: Tom King, pitcher; Mark Yates, catcher; Dennis Mantick, second base; and Tim O'Neil, shortstop.

A special congratulations should be extended to the coaches and players. Without their working together, the Slicers could not be a STATE BASEBALL POWERHOUSE. Keep up the good work!

Senior Dave McGarvey bounds quickly over a hurdle, as he did many times during the year.

A quick exchange is essential to a successful relay race, as displayed by Rahn Bates and Dave McGarvey.

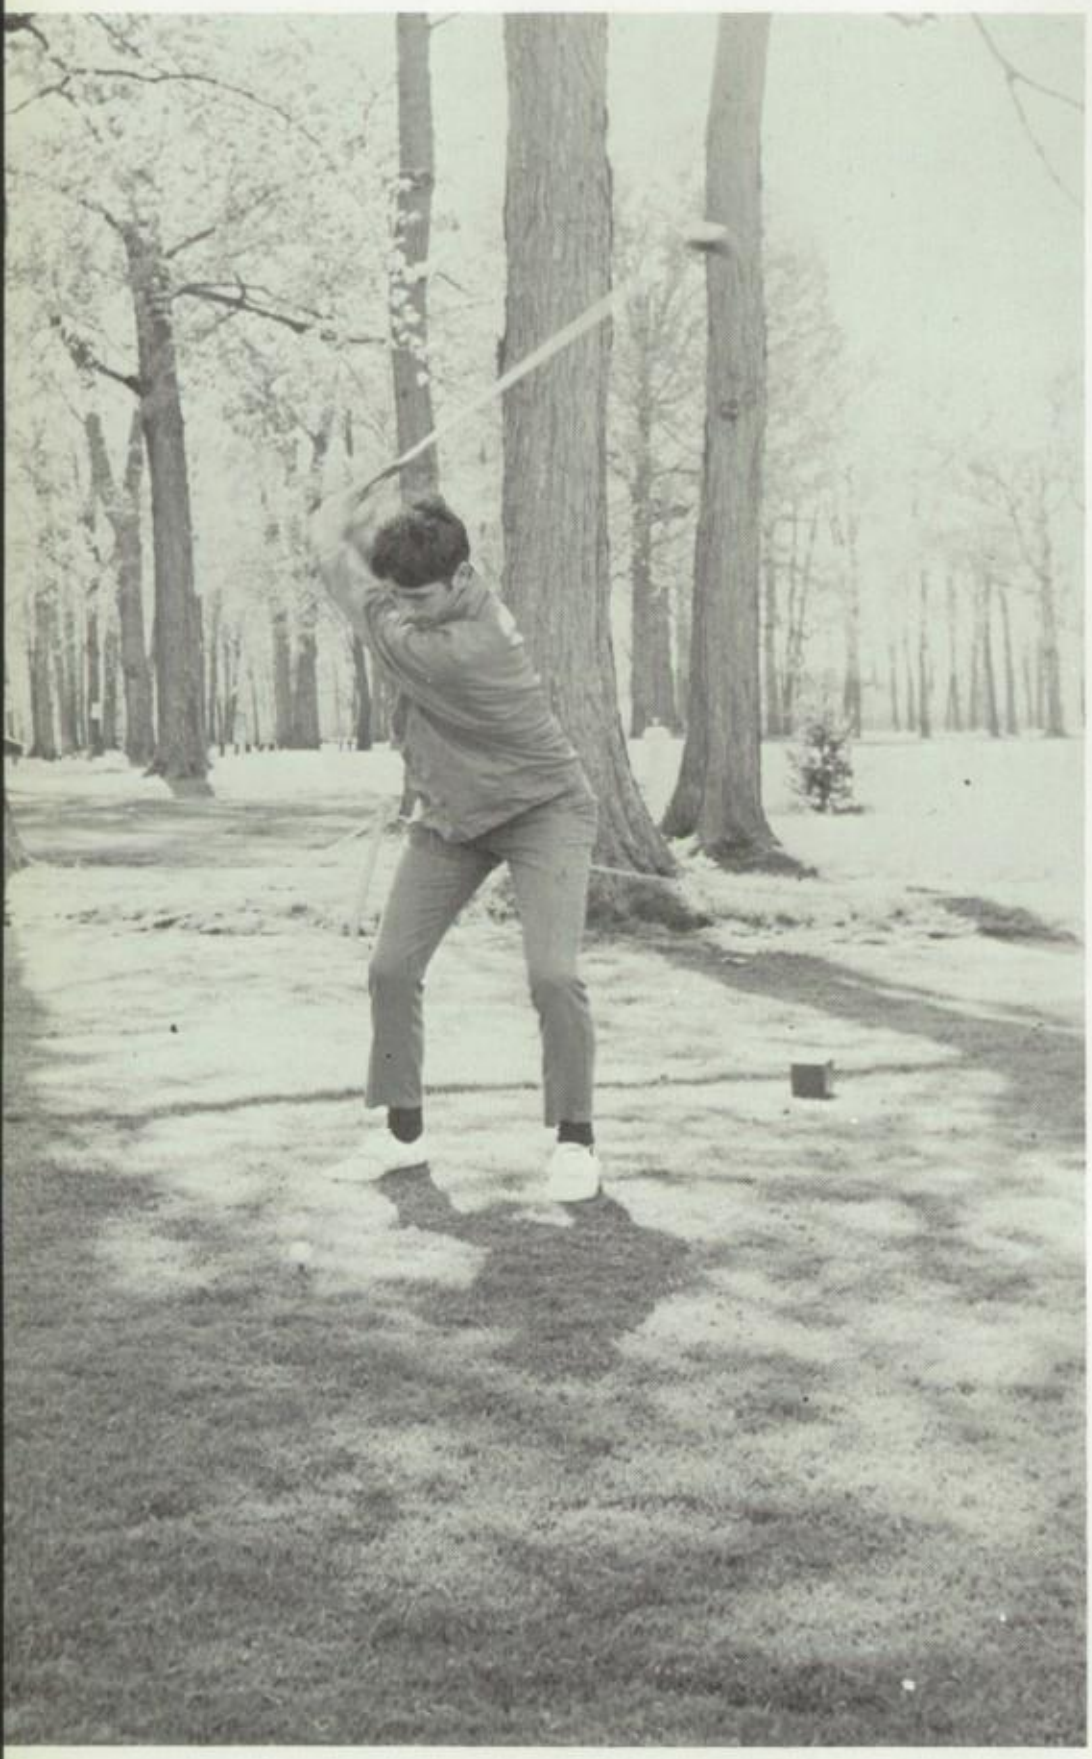
Senior Phil Droege gets off to a good start–and a good finish as he breaks the school record in the 440.

Coach Dick Deardurff guided the cindermen to a fine record.

Golf team putts in another successful year

This year two lettermen formed the nucleus of the 1971 Golf Squad. Tim Rempala, the team's only senior, served as the captain. Coach Robert Hoke gave much praise to all of the members of the team at the Spring Sports Banquet. Seven varsity awards were given.

Bruce Grenda won the Butch Uebele Golf Award and was voted the Most Valuable Player. The team ended with a 9-8 season. At the sectionals twenty-three teams competed and La Porte took third place. Since the team had only one senior, the rest of the members will be returning next year for what looks like a good season.



Getting ready to tee off for another game is varsity member, Bill Michaels.

Senior Larry Levenhagen received the seventh Mr. Intramural Award. The Rosentreter Team was the winner of the Junior-Senior 'A' Flight, the Alberding Team was the winner of the Junior-Senior 'B' Flight, and the Minix Team was the Sophomore Champion. Mr. George Allesee Jr. and Mr. Bernie Laufmann, sponsors, kept the program running smoothly and should be congratulated for making this year's program a success.

Intramural softball has exciting year.

The Intramural softbal: program enjoyed another successful year with Mr. George Allesee as sponsor.

The winner of the "A" Flight was the Rosentreter team. The same team captain had won the Intramural basketball championship the previous winter. This marked the first time that the same team captain had taken both "A" Flight Division Championships. The winners of the "B" Flight Division Championship was the Curry Team.

The 1971 El-Pe Queen, Jo Ellen Zellers, presented each winning team with their trophy after the end of the tournament.

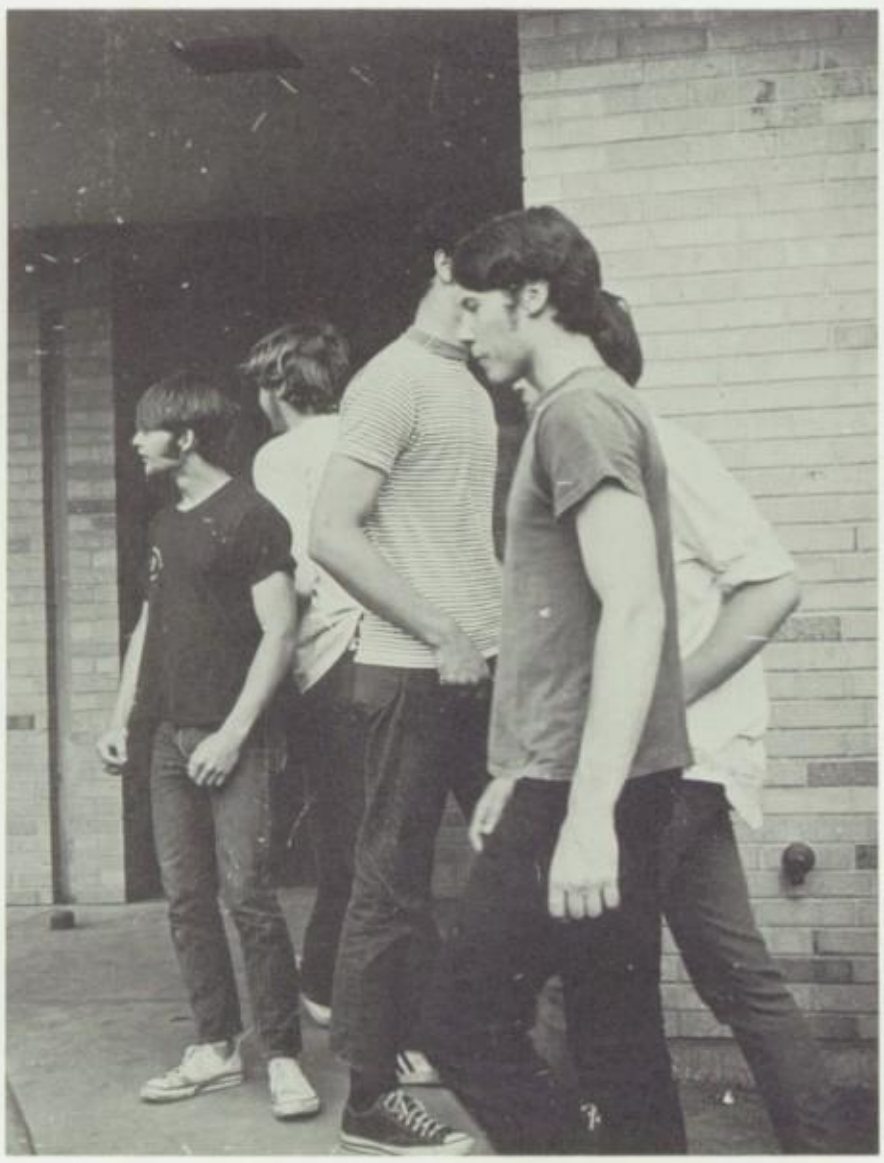
Heh! Why don't you guys get this game started?



Matt Chalman won't have to catch this pitch as Larry Levenhagen slams it.

"All Legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Student Council." Thus begins the new LPHS Student Council Constitution. In this transitional year, the Council was expanded to include one representative from each first hour class. A Student Counselling Committee was formed to help new LPHS students get acquainted with LPHS. Also newly formed was an Advisory Board, which would act as a body for judicial review. The Student Council sponsored the Homecoming festivities of "101 Pigskin Odyssey" and decided to change the title of "Track Queen" to "Spring Sports Queen." Even though this has been a transitional year, it has been a year in which Student Council has tried to bridge the gap between teachers and students. The outlook for next year's Student Council is promising.

LPHS Senior Reps diffuse into community

Senior Representatives exemplify another type of student representation in LPHS. They represent LPHS at many of the various civic organizations in LaPorte such as Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, AAUW, and Women's Literary. Senior Reps are chosen on the basis of leadership, ability, service, and attitude. Being a Senior Rep involves much more than just getting a free meal for it requires participation in the community beyond normal class lives. The opportunity of being a Senior Rep offers any LPHS senior the chance to show the adult world that the youth of today will be the leaders of tomorrow.

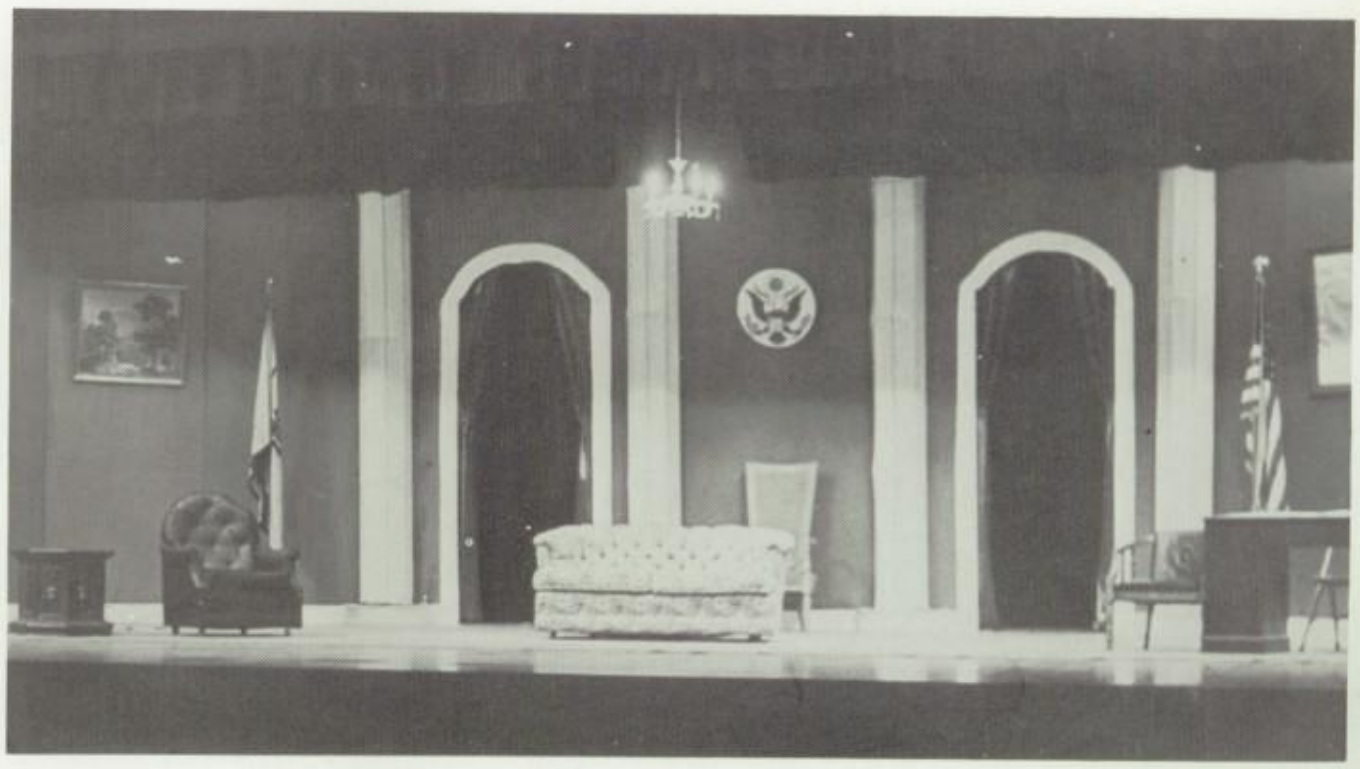
New members inducted in annual ceremony

Vice-president Ken Gerke, President Jim Petrila, Sponsor A. A. Brinklow, Treasurer Tami Canfield, and Secretary Joy Tolbert examine the membership roles of the LaPorte Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service are the qualities which are necessary for acceptance into the National Honor Society. The student must be in the upper third of his class, scholastically. From the candidates, a faculty committee selects ten per cent of the senior class for membership. The traditional spring candle-light induction ceremony made the members aware of the importance of attaining character, leadership and service through their life.



This set was designed, constructed, and used by Tau Sig members in the fall play "Don't Drink The Water."

Membership in Tau Sigma Chi is

Tau Sigma Chi is one of the action clubs in LPHS. Along with regular speech activities, the club sponsors two plays, one in the spring and one in the fall. This year the plays were "Don't Drink The Water" and "1984". Acting is only one area of involvement as many members are involved with the numerous crews it takes to produce a play. Other speech activities in which Tau Sig members participate include debate, discussion, and extemporaneous speech. Membership in Tau Sigma Chi is a prized possession that may only be attained by service in the field of speech.

Mark Anderson and Ken Gerke rehearse their lines while set construction crew members add finishing touches to the set.

Mr. James Lampl, director of "Don't Drink The Water", gives the cast and crews their final instructions before the first performance. At this late date, all he can do is hope that they will do their respective jobs well.

Clockstoppers are spirit makers at LPHS

Clockstoppers are some of the busiest club members in LPHS. They aid in the smooth running of swim meets at the YMCA by keeping the time and score, although their most important job is to add spirit to these swim meets. At the beginning of this year 63 girls were nominated to be Clockstoppers and after a series of interviews, only 13 were chosen to make a total of 35 Clockstoppers. This year will be remembered by the changing of the Clockstopper's outfits from orange tee-shirts and white shorts to orange pant d r e s s e s. Some of their other activities were the making of a Homecoming float and the printing of a weekly swim paper, the DOG-PADDLE, which had highlights of past meets, coming meets, and swim members.

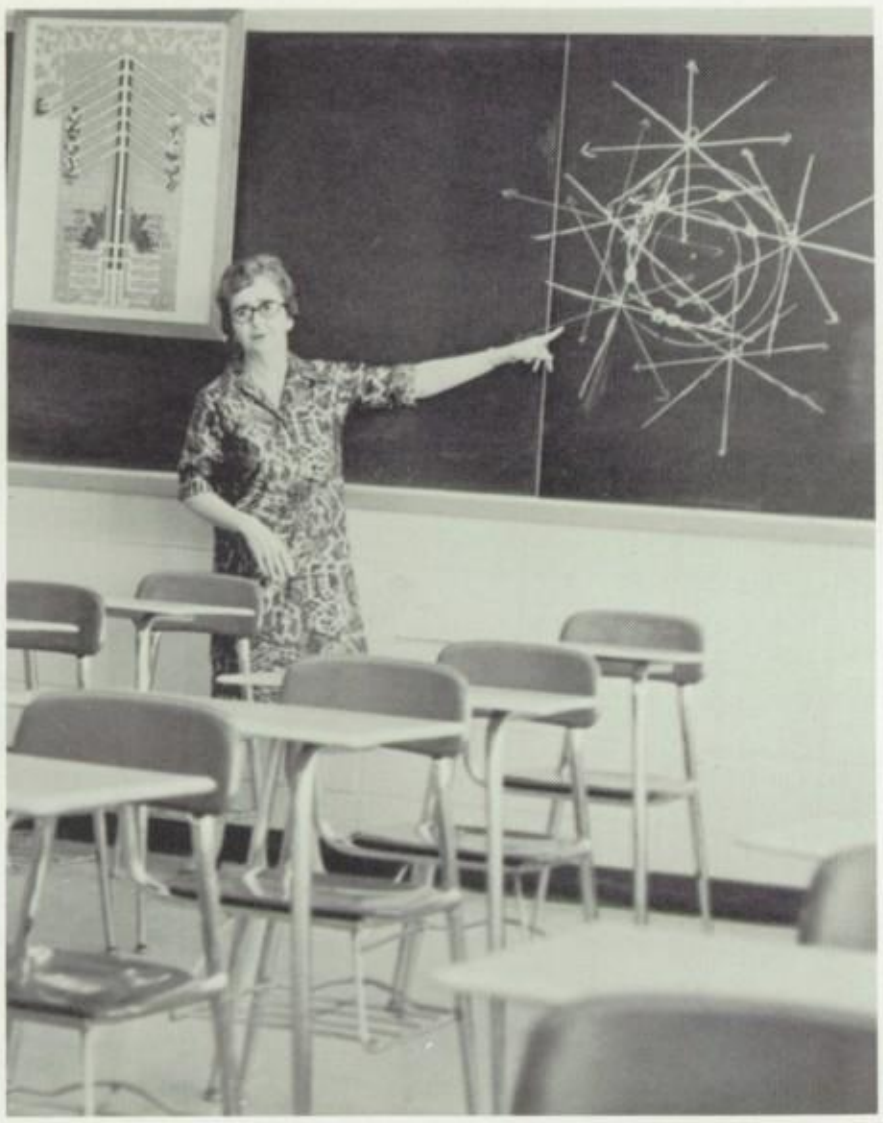
FEA explored careers in teaching

The residents of the La Porte County Home were provided with refreshments and entertainment this spring by The Future Educators of America, or FEA. Debbie Kneisley played the piano while the senior citizens and the FEA members sang. A humorous poetry reading was also presented by Bob Snyder. A day with the migrant worker's children proved to be interesting, as well as entertaining, for the club members. At one of the club meetings, a group of cadet teachers formed a panel and told about their different experiences.



Miss Charlotte Hogle, FEA sponsor, has had much practice teaching and shared her experiences with FEA members.

Library Science fused with fun to form Library Club

Library Club was formed to meet together to promote interests in reading and books, to explore opportunities in library science careers, and to share interests in library science. Though being a library assistant is not a requirement for membership, most members do assist in keeping the library running smoothly. The first activity of the year was the annual Halloween Party complete with costumes. By decorating the library, Library Club added Christmas spirit to school spirit. Other activities of the year included a donation to the Bill Heise Fund, the annual decorating party at Christmas, the forty-first annual spring party between La Porte and Michigan City Library Clubs, and the end of the year picnic.

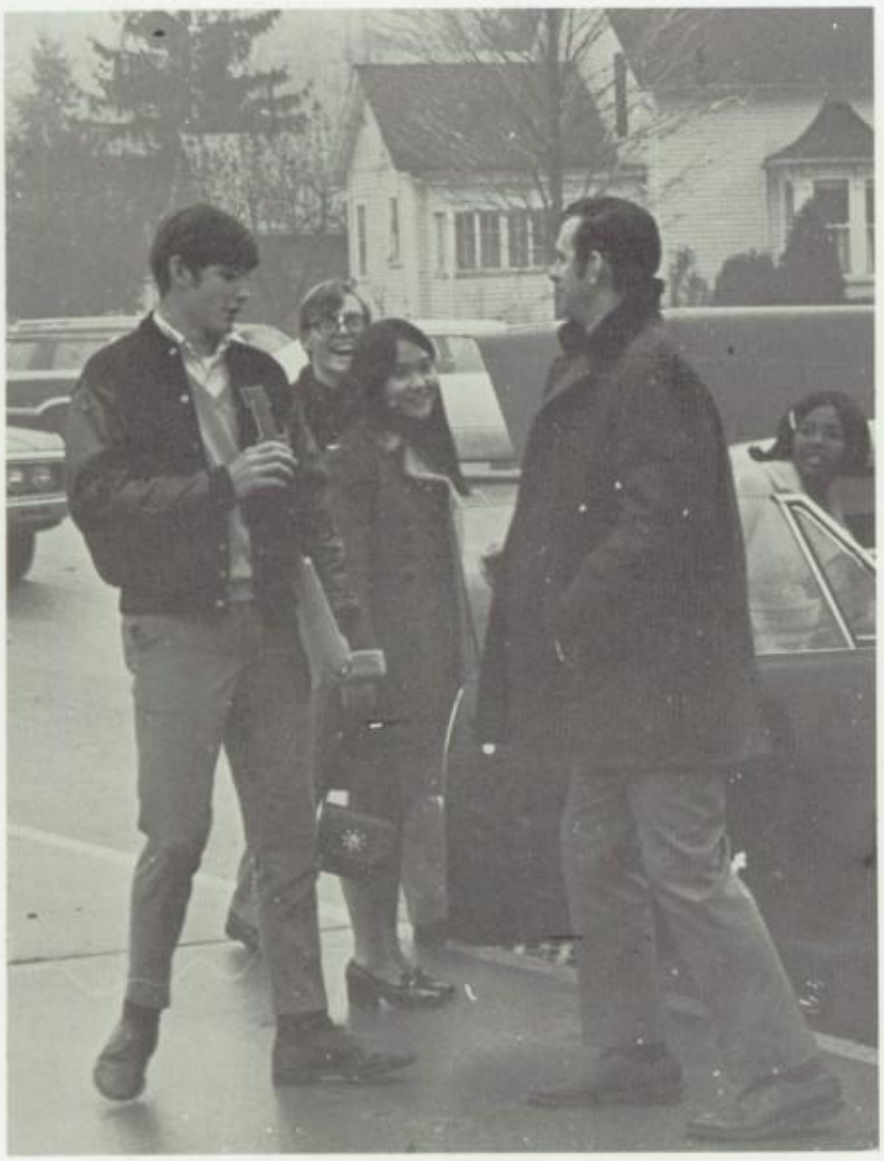
Social Studies Club sponsored the trip to Purdue Legislature for LPHS Students



Social Studies Club was formed to promote interest in some of the social problems of today. In keeping with this purpose, Probation Officer Richard Dodd came to LPHS and spoke to some of the Social Studies Club members about the narcotics problem in La Porte. This club's most important activity was its sponsoring a group of LPHS students attending the Purdue Legislature.

A Capella and Kantra Kays exercise

This year, a new singing group, the Kantra Kays, appeared on the music scene at LPHS. The group, composed of approximately 45 Junior and Senior girls chosen on a tryout basis and eligible for Swing Choir tryout, derives its name from CANTRICES, a Latin word meaning literally, "Female Singer."

A robed choir, the Kantra Kays met part time this year. Because of their excellent performances in the Winter and Spring Concerts and the 6-City Choral Festival, they will meet full time next year. They proved to be another example of the quality choirs to which the students of La Porte High School have become accustomed.

Mr. Burke briefs his A Capella on some difficult passages ahead.

The gifted voices of LPHS

Sharon Burns, Pat Casper, Paula Schroeder, and Mary Key Minich add their voices to a unique version of "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

Tri-M officers review plans for the coming initiation. Tri-M is an honorary music club with selection based on scholarship, ability, and service to LPHS' music department. Officers are left: Vice-president Mark Krentz, Secretary Karis Kessler, President Ken Gerke, and Treasurer Mark Anderson.

A Cappella Choir again proved to be the premier choir at La Porte. Chosen on the basis of highly competitive tryouts, the 65 voice Junior-Senior choir showed their talents in the Winter and Spring Concerts, the 6-City Choral Festival, and the Baccalaureate Ceremonies. The spring Concert was highlighted this year by the presentation of "Chichester Psalms," a Leonard Bernstein composition in three movements, sung in Hebrew and very effectively performed.

The A Cappella Choir is also robed, made distinctive by their red stoles. Meeting full time, they work hard every year, combining their voices to give La Porte one of the finest music reputations in the state, a reputation earned and well deserved.

1970-71 A Cappella choir members were front: M. Smith, D. Tonsoni, L. White, M. Gnatt, L. Kukla, M. Cash, S. Johnson, K, Kessler, D. Weaver, J. Essling, M. Nurse, B. Lehker, N. Burrows, A. Kaminski, L. Zimmermann, and Mr. Burke. Row two: B. Fisher, D. Krueger, M. Marks, D. Pliska, M. Terzino, S. Pataluch, J. Ramsay, J. Stuebing, D. DePoy, S. Boklund, D. Taylor, E. Buchanan, P. Schultz, K. Fackelman, P. Schmitt. Row three: R. Kronewitter, C. Hale, R. Baugh, S. Gring, J. Sellers, S. Sharp, D. Salzer, P. Shaw, D. Thode, J. Moo, J. Hibner, S. Blystone, J. Fitzpatrick, L. Henderlong, P. Van Dierendonck, M. Bailey, Row four: J. Jankiewicz, M. Anderson, K. Evory, J. Petrila, B. Bline, K. Gerke, J. Tanger, M. Krentz, D. Porter, M. Bauer, L. Graham, V. Demoret, P. Renner, J. Bello, L. Levenhagen, and T. Rempala. A Capella represents the mixed voices of LPHS at their best.

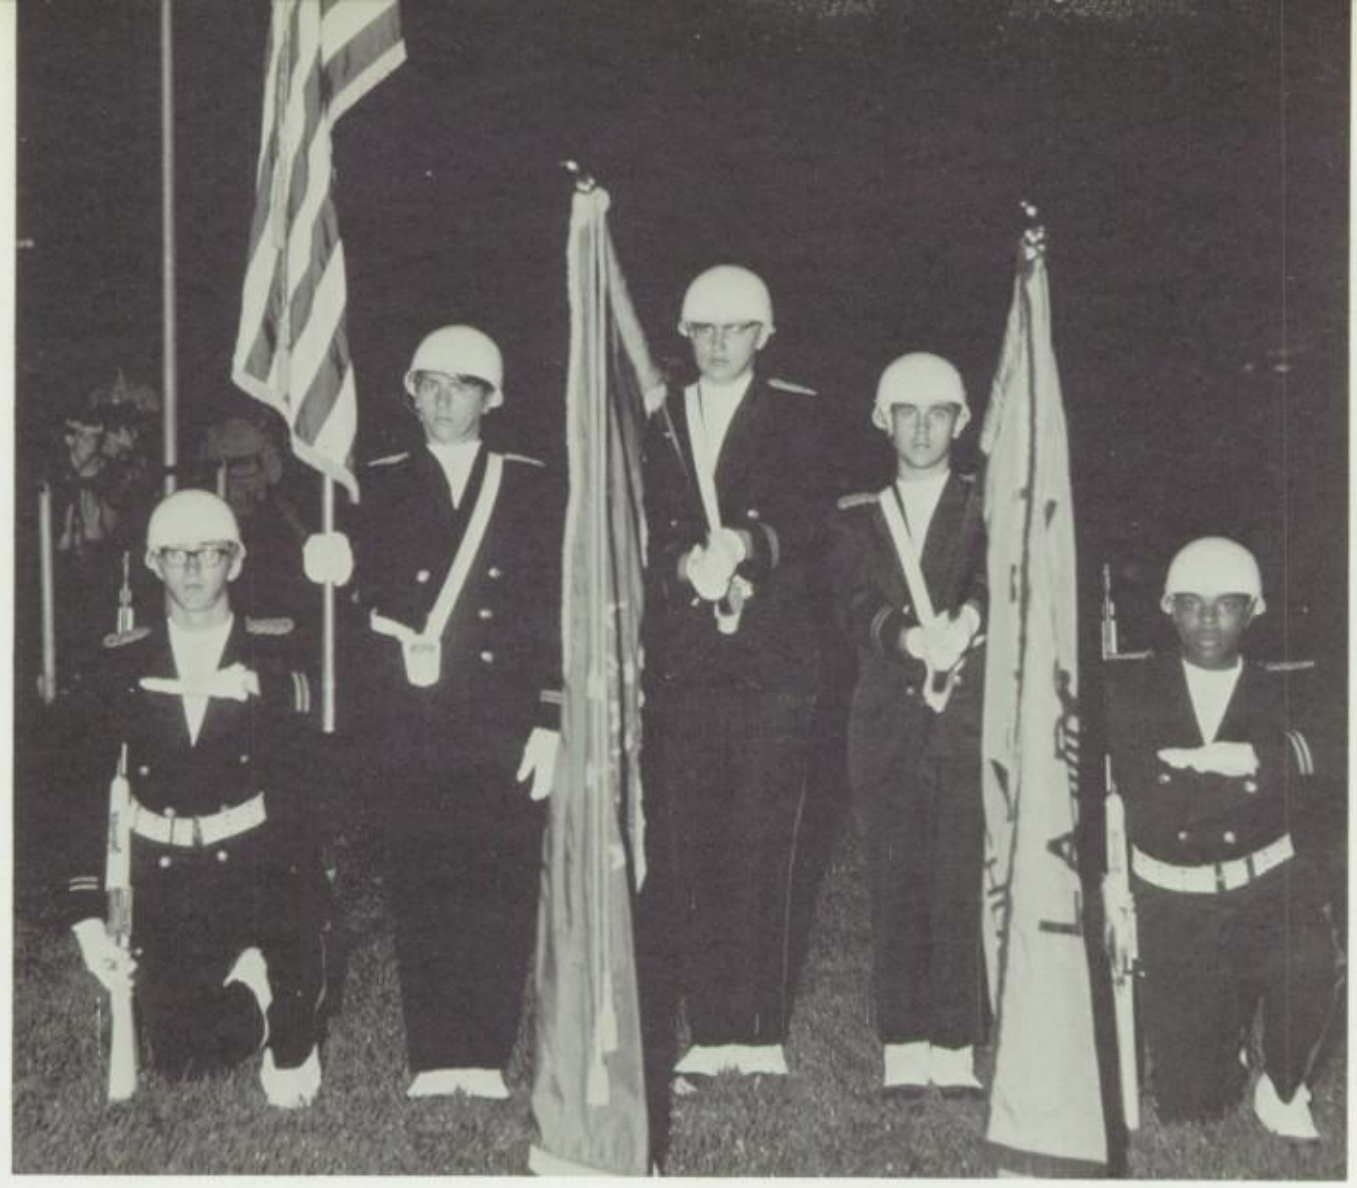
Flag and baton twirlers added sparkle to the shows. They were: Raelene Johnson, Pamela Bargholz, Denise Shaw, Donna Kless, Debbie Kneisley, Linda Lee, Sheryl Johnson, Phyllis Kemiel, Marj Shaw, Pamela Holloway. Kneeling: Barb Tuholski, Kay Peting, and Cathie Harrell.

LPHS Marching Band presentations add

Music, formation, and color, all these blend together in the stirring performances of the LPHS Marching Band. Directed by Mr. Guy Foreman and new assistant director, Mr. John Gentry, the biggest show of the season was HELLO BROADWAY, highlighted by hit tunes such as "Mame", "Consider Yourself", and "Hello Dolly". The one hundred eleven piece Marching Band worked together to portray a stage with rising curtain and dancing girl. The finale of this show was the first appearance of Mrs. Jane Goad's pom-pon girls.

Drum majors for the band were: Randy Hill, Chuck Riley, and Mike Glanders.

Randall Hill assisted in the direction of the LPHS marching band during their weekly performances at our Slicer's home football games.



Pamela Bargholz used her twirling skill to solo for LPHS this year.

excitement to our halftime activities

Pounding drums and blaring horns fuse together to create the melody of excitement that a marching band always plays. Hours of practice give the desired goal.

Members of the 1970-71 Swing Choir were: R. White, drums, M. Trigg, K. Gerke, L. Graham, M. Terzino, M. Bauer, S. Pataluch, J. Stuebing, N. Burrows, E. Buchanon, J. Bello, D. Pliska, G. Jankiewicz, D. Kneisley, piano, K. Kessler, bass, and Swing members M. Anderson, L. Zimmermann, M. Krentz, and B. Fisher who are seated on the floor. These talented LPHS students made up the great Swing Choir for 1970-71.

Swing Choir mixes "Fruitcake" once again

The talented LPHS Swing Choir enjoyed another busy and successful year under the capable direction of Mr. Eddie Burk. This year the Swing Choir performed for many different civic groups, in the Christmas Choral Concert, and last, but not least in the annual Swing Choir Show. The Christmas Concert was highlighted by the singing of the traditional songs, "Fruitcake" and "Jingle Bells Around The World." The repertoire of Swing ranges from classical to contemporary selections including "Aquarius" and "The Battle Hymn Of The Republic". As usual, the 1970-71 Swing Choir presented an outstanding show which was written and produced by Swing members.

Jan Stuebing, Sandy Pataluch, Larry Graham and Mary Terzino make like Chinese during the 1970 Christmas Choral Concert.

Gerry Jankiewicz and Larry Graham argue that fruitcake is still number one during the song "Fruitcake" in the Christmas Choral Concert.

Health Careers prepares aspiring students for the future

Debbie Six demonstrates the accepted method for taking a patient's temperature on Pat Kennedy while Mary Swanson looks on. These three girls attended an Indiana Health Careers Workshop at Butler University last fall.

Students interested in pursuing any type of health career are given an opportunity to learn about the world of health occupations through lectures, tours, and workshops sponsored by Health Careers Club. Major activities this year included tours through Memorial Hospital in South Bend, the lab of LaPorte Hospital, and the x-ray department of LaPorte Hospital. Three members traveled to Butler University, Indianapolis for an Indiana Health Careers Workshop which explained the different Health fields available. Health Careers Club is open to all guys and girls interested in a health career.

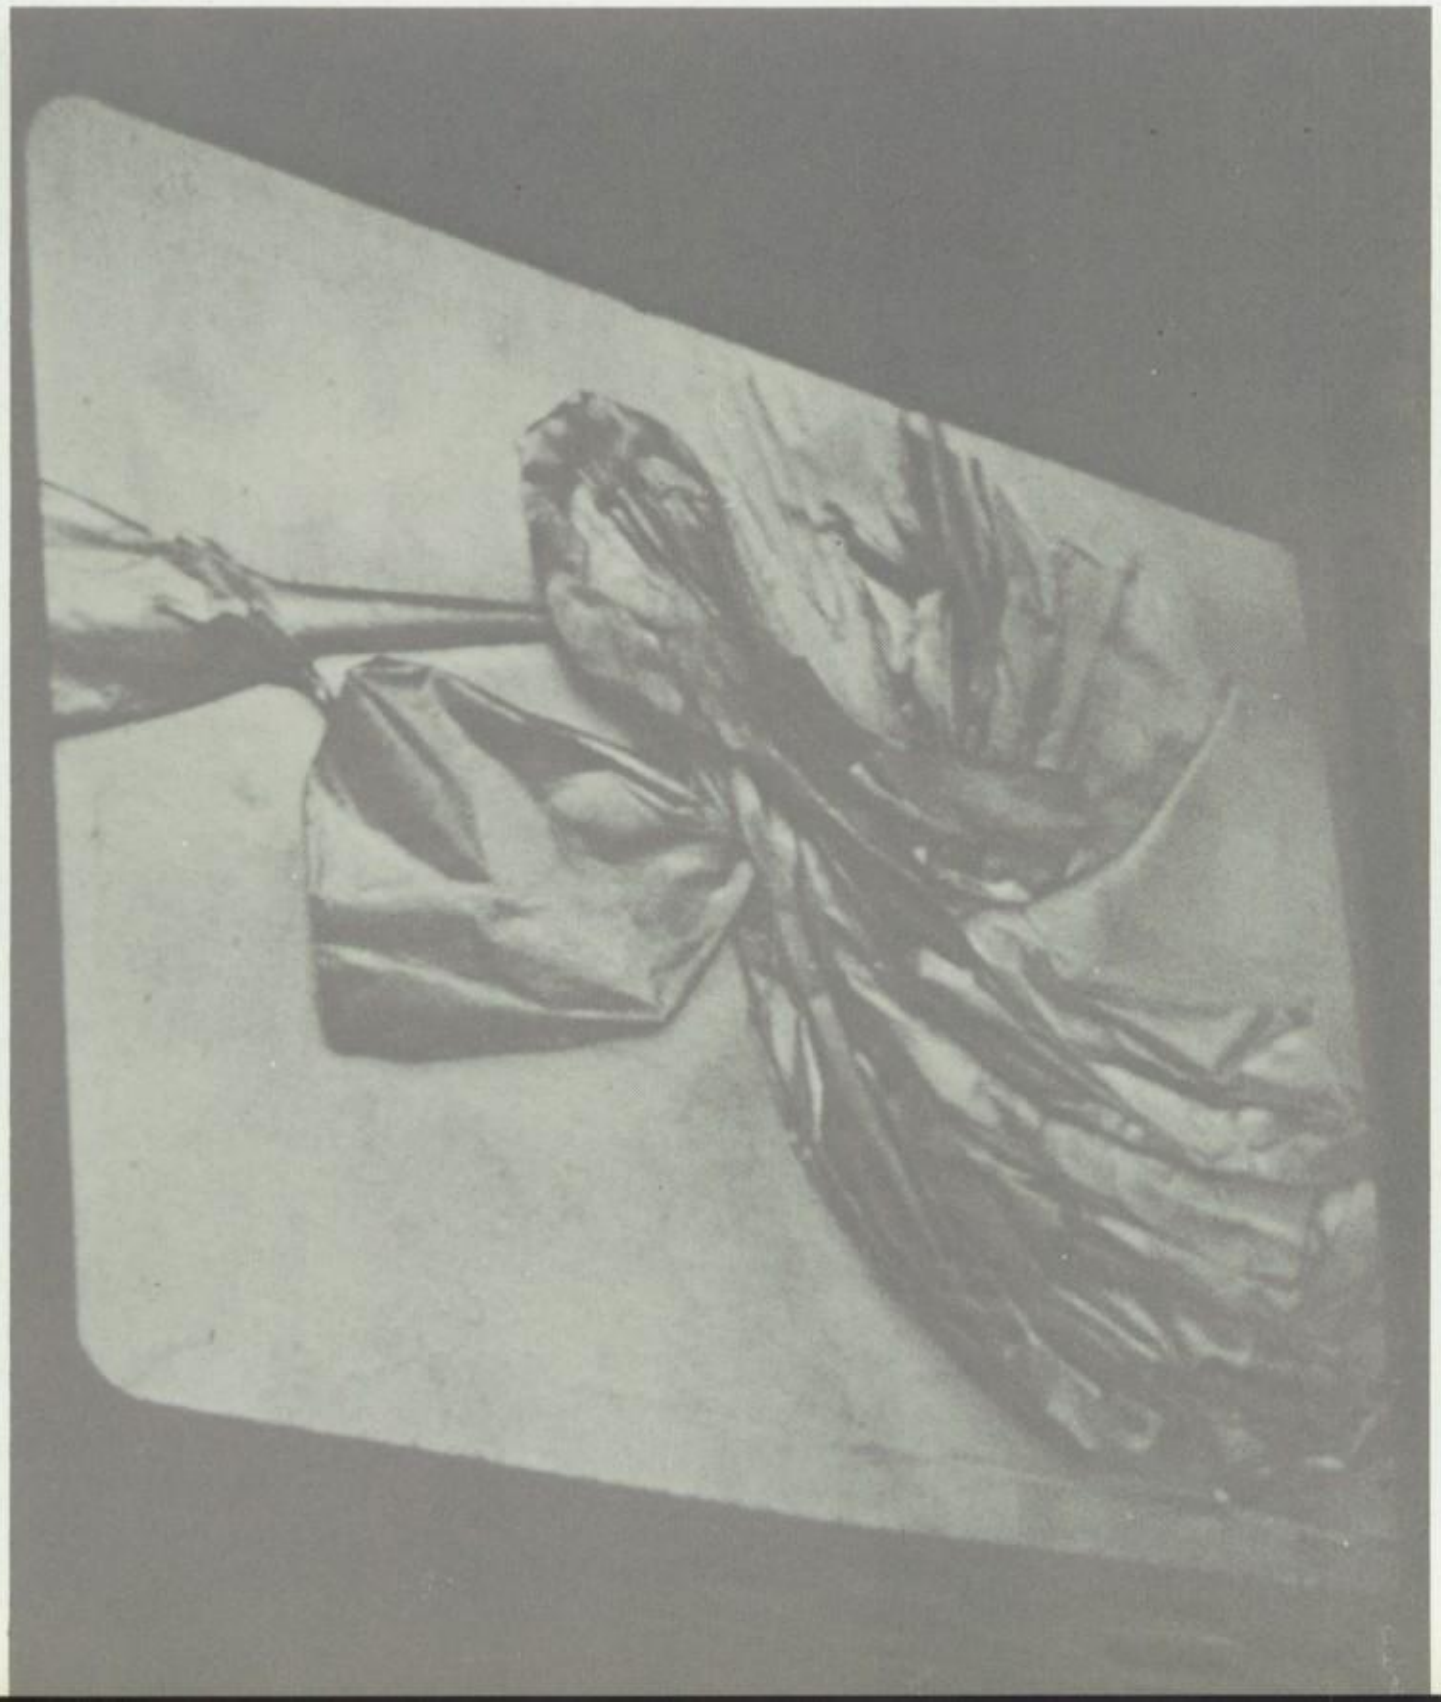
Art Club draws attention in LPHS

"I gotta' git me a man!" This was the thought in every girl's mind in preparation for the Art Club's Sadie Hawkins' Dance. The students dressed in hillbilly style, came ready to make whoopee. Art Club also made the first place Homecoming float. Dominating the float was a large, mechanical eagle. The annual Christmas program given for the students coordinated music and art for a creative and wonderful effect. At the Art Club meetings, the members work on a project or learn something new in art. Many students feel it is necessary to be very artistic to join Art Club. This is not true as the main membership requirement is to be a hard worker.

Dale Horn throws a questioning glance to door prize winner, Joy Tarr.

With the use of an overhead projector to display their sketches, Art Club helped make the Christmas assembly a success.



Susan Simpson and Erlene Upp talk over the new German recipes they've tried at the German Club Christmas Party

German orientated activities motivated German students to further exploration of Bavarian life style while adding interest and knowledge at the same time. A trip to Chicago which included shopping at Old Town and eating at a German restaurant, "Zum Deutschen Eck," a Christmas party at Frau Roule's, and a picnic in May highlighted club activities for 1970-71. Topping off this active schedule were a German banquet featuring food, plays, and fun, the sending of a club member to a summer camp for German students, and the presentation of a scholarship to a worthy member of the club.

Spanish Club fuses Spanish ideas with learning

In the fall, candy was sold by Spanish Club members. This money was put toward a fund formed to send club members to Mexico during summer vacation. Preceding the Christmas season, Spanish carols were learned in preparation for the Christmas party which was highlighted by the breaking of a flower pot shaped pinata, filled with presents and candy. Spanish Club organized a trip to Valparaiso University to see the drama "La Casa de Bernarda Alba". These activities gave the members a chance to practice speaking Spanish.

Latin Club does as the Romans did.

Mr. Jack Ivey, sponsor for Latin Club, helps his modern day Romans gain knowledge first-hand. Although the actual initiation may not be symbolic, the auctioning of slaves, wearing of togas, and the annual Latin Club banquet do follow Roman customs closely. Besides the initiation and banquet this year, Latin Club members also hope to attend a convention at Indiana University.

French Club carols around LaPorte

This past year, French Club participated in the co-operative effort to make the Language Homecoming float. Also, "Les troubadours franscais" was formed to give French enthusiasts a chance to learn more French songs. One of the most outstanding club activities was when its sponsor, Mr. Joe Van Mol, took a group of French Club members to Quebec during Spring Vacation.

There IS an easy way to study a language during the summer. If you don't believe it, ask Claudia Szawica about the pyramids at Teotihuacan, Mexico or Debbie North and Carol Mannia about the Caves of Garcia near Satillo, Mexico. AFS adds a new dimension to LPHS

Kyoko is helped with her kimono by her small but dynamic sister Maribeth.

This year the AFS students who are attending LPHS are extremely interesting and attractive in that they are both females. Kyoko Hayashi hails from Japan and is residing with the Robert Gettinger family while Margy Nurse comes from the Barbados and lives with the William Gring family. Much of an exchange student's time is wrapped up in speaking engagements, luncheons, and plenty of good old LPHS homework. We were fortunate to have two such interesting and informed AFS students for the 1970-71 school year. Through these two young ladies LPHS has gained a window to the world which exists beyond the confines of LPHS.

The members of Kyoko's family are Mr. and Mrs. Gettinger, Maribeth, Julie, and Bruni, the official mascot of the Gettinger family.

International Club fuses La Porte with the world

Interest in the customs of foreign countries was stimulated this past year in International Club. This was achieved by having guest speakers describe their travels in foreign countries.

Each year this club has a get-acquainted party for the new AFS students. As usual, this party was a complete success while Marguerite Nurse and Kyoko Hayashi were formally introduced to LPHS.

One of the highlights of the past year was when International Club's homecoming queen candidate, Kyoko Hayashi, AFS student from Japan, was announced first runner-up.

Margie Nurse appears to be explaining tomorrow's homework assignment to an attentive Kyoko Hayashi.

Pepper Club adds spice to LPHS

With the help of its 135 members, Pepper Club helped spread spirit in LPHS. Pepper Club members "spiced-up" their outfits this year by buying bright orange sweaters to wear over black skirts. While wearing black gloves, hand jives were performed at basketball games to such tunes as "Son of a Preacher Man" and "Georgy Girl." They made a homecoming float, sold Booster Badges, decorated the hoop before each home basketball game, sold concessions at football games, and served at the Fall Sports Banquet. Profits from the post-Jamboree dance, sponsored by Pepper Club, were used to provide the cheerleaders with new uniforms.

Even though they are not a part of Pepper Club, spirit was added by the "Animals," fusing their bodies to form a line at a basketball game.

1970-71 Pom-Pon girls were back: B. Grey, K. Kessler, L. Kukla, J. Fischer, C. Christ, P. Small, E. Stevens, P. Schultz, C. Richards, K. Deuitch, A. Kaminski, and L. Marshall; Front: J. Berby, M. Smith, J. Moore, S. Yates, M. Forszt, S. Weidner, L. Szilagyi, D. Hamilton, P. Thompson, K. Goad, and M. Weber.

Pom-pon Girls kick up our School spirit.

Opening their third successful season, Mr. Goad's Pom-Pon girls performed with the marching band to strains of "Consider Yourself." The pride of LPHS, these girls provided the skill while Pep Band provided the rhythm. Popular tunes selected for this year's routines were "Mame," "Spinning Wheel," "Hey Big Spender," and others. Nineteen regulars and four alternates comprised this year's group of hard-working and devoted performers.

Performing with the precision for which Pom-Pon girls are known are Cindy Christ, Anne Kaminski, and Pat Thompson.

Anne Kaminski successfully completes a complex part of her routine, showing the skill necessary to be an LPHS Pom-Pon girl.

Pep Committee and Pep Band fuse spirit with LPHS sports.

School spirit is the fusion of enthusiastic loyalty. Another way of saying school spirit is pep committee. It consisted of the cheerleaders and a few chosen students. They planned the pep sessions, made signs to post throughout the school to promote school spirit, and sponsored the Slicer mascot contest.

Nineteen members from high school band were selected to form the Pep Band. This special band performed at pep sessions and basketball games. It also accompanied the Pom Pon girls during their many performances. "When the Team Comes Marching In" and "Sweet Georgia Brown" were played while the Pepper Club did hand jives.

Girl Reserves (GR), is an organization formed to give service to the school and community. Annually, the club performs services such as helping teachers, candystriping, and wrapping Christmas boxes for Beatty Hospital. This year GR combined with Boys' Service Club to lead the Bill Heiss Walk Fund. Later that week, both clubs again combined to chaperone Halloween brownie point. Two points each were required to attend the winter formal and/or the Mother-Daughter Dessert and spring fashion show later in the year.

Unity is examplified by the circle which the BSC team formed for warm-up practice prior to the BSC-Faculty football game.

hectic, but unsurpassed year for BSC

The Boys Service Club (BSC) of 1970-71 will definitely go down as one of the most active and productive in the history of LPHS. The year was highlighted by the Bill Heiss Walk Fund, the Texas Cowgirl game, the donation to the Theresa Kelly Fund, and the creation of the Melvin McCoy Fund. The Bill Heiss Walk Fund was established for Bill Heiss, a 1970 graduate of LPHS, who was injured in a freak swimming accident. With BSC spearheading the project, over $6500 was raised for the fund. Next came the Texas Cowgirls, an all female basketball team, who played and defeated the LaPorte County All Stars. BSC then sold candles and donated the $500 earned to the Theresa Kelly Fund created for a young LaPorte girl critically burned in a home fire accident. The last big project was a film festival with all proceeds going to the Melvin McCoy Fund which was created for a young LaPorte boy who suffered a serious kidney ailment and was hospitalized in Chicago. However, BSC does other little known projects such as working for the bloodmobile, serving banquets, and ushering at basketball games. A little publicized money making project was parking cars at the LaPorte County Fair. The goal of BSC is to serve its school, its community, and its fellow man. Under the leadership of Mr. Bernth, its sponsor, and its officers, the Boys Service Club of 1970-71 has met that goal.

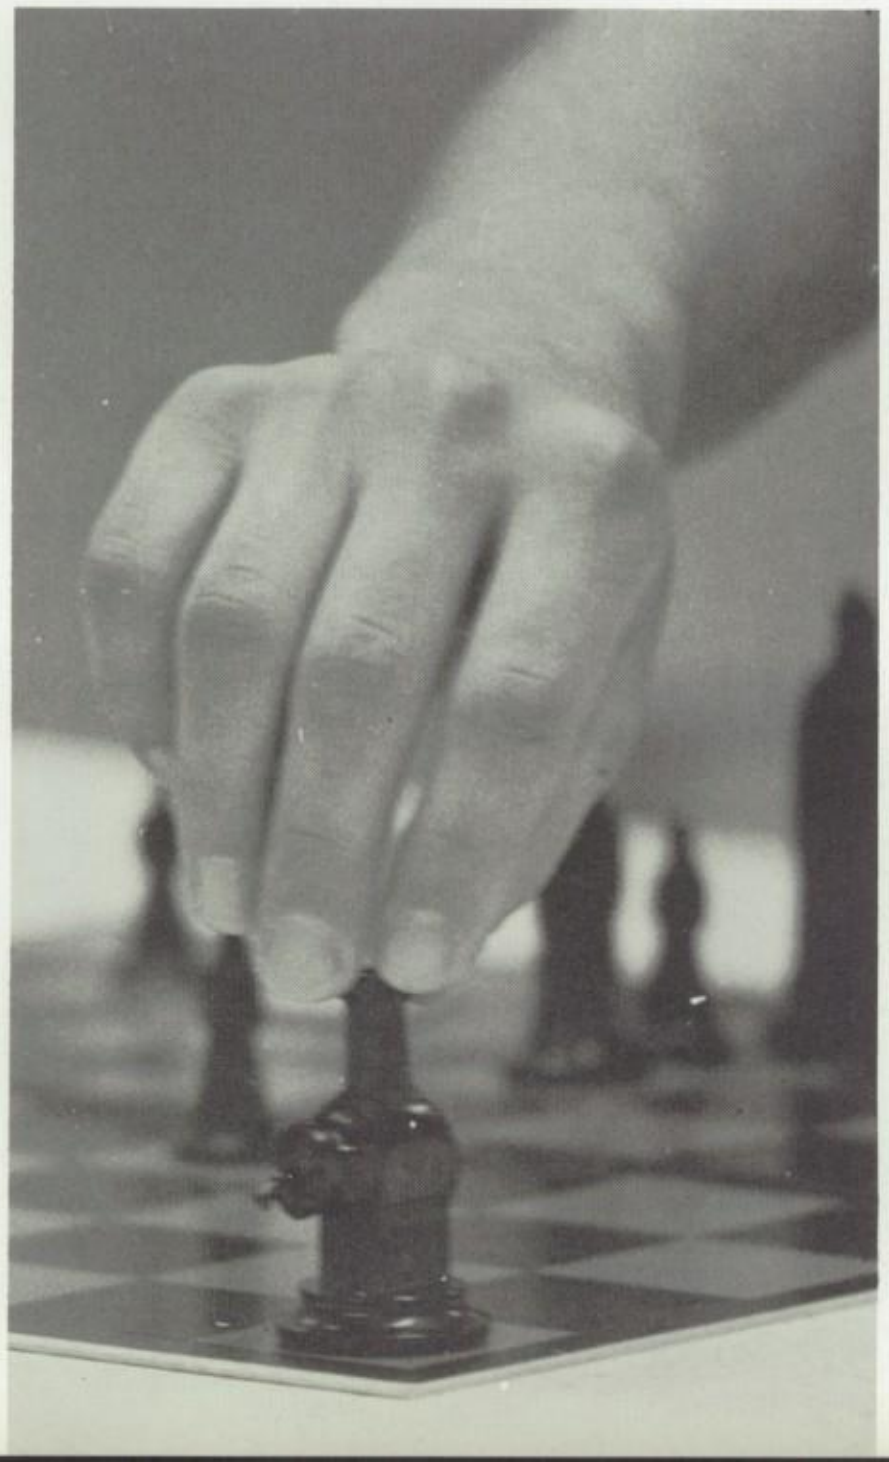
Chess Club members wage battle of wits

"... should I or shouldn't I? This might be my last move."



Chess Club is one of the many clubs at LPHS. It's different, though, because instead of its members planning service projects, they plan strategics and counter-attacks. The only requirements to be a member of this club are to enjoy the game of chess and to be an avid competitor. Chess Club meets every Tuesday in the balcony of the library and its sponsor is Mr. Cooper.

Determination and timing are reflected on Steve Dickens' face.

Strike! This exclamation has been heard many times in the past year during the meetings of Bowling Club. Strikes are achieved by the fusion of timing, form, and accuracy. Bowling Club whose sponsor is Mr. D o l a w a y, meets every Tuesday at Thunderbird Lanes.

HI-TIMES awarded honors, expands staff in

The HI-TIMES, the weekly newspaper of LPHS, was named as one of the top six student newspapers in the state of Indiana by the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association. It was also awarded a citation on the national level for its features and editorials written on smoking and air pollution. The staff was expanded to provide more thorough coverage of the busy schedule of the LPHS student body. All stories and photographs are the work of staff members who realize the full meaning of the term "deadline." LPHS is very lucky to have such a quality student weekly that listens and responds to the needs of its readers.

El Pe highlights its fiftieth year with new

The 1971 El Pe staff took on a new look with a new sponsor and a completely new staff with the exception of four returning seniors. The first few weeks were a learning process as the new staffers had to learn to take photographs, design layouts, write copy, and crop pictures. It was a long year, one that was trying for the staff and Miss Eggleston, in her first year as sponsor, as they learned and worked together in order to create this book. The work that goes into a yearbook entails many hours of labor, both in and out of school. Even though, there were many good times, the Christmas party at Miss Eggleston's house, dinner at Wellman's, and seeing "Brigadoon" at the Bridge-Vu Theatre. A yearbook is a history book because it records the life of a school, the students, and the faculty in the course of a year. The 1971 El Pe staff has worked long and hard to create this book for you, the reader.

Our Ads Section was always one jump ahead of the many deadlines. They were Jim Snyder, Marcia Kelsey, Doris Sacks, and Jim Petrila.

Activities Section members and the photographers had to work together in order to get club pictures. Joy Keene, Linda Bryant, and Rick Hagenow were on the Activities Section and the photographers were Jack Quartucio, Tim Franceschini, and Rich Swanson.

Designing special layouts and making sure all pictures were received and the names were spelled correctly was a hard job for the People Section members, Karen Williams, Ed Whittaker, and Robin Dunn.

"This book, we hope, will win the praise
That's due to those who've spent their days
In building up 'mid toil and strife,
A true account of High School life.

If we by words have some offended,
Think nothing harmful was intended;
But laud the task so well begun,
And now rejoice that all is done."

It was with this short poem that the yearbook staff of 1919 concluded their La Porte High School annual, the first ever to be published in this school. Now, more than fifty-two years later, we can look back at this book with its thumb-marked pages and faded pictures, cartoons, and prose, and appreciate those few students' efforts to keep alive all the people and events of their school year.

This year, 1971, marks the fiftieth publication of the El Pe. The staff still feels that what was first written in that poem holds true for our own book. As we celebrate fifty years of its existence, we hope that the El Pe has succeeded in helping students remember their "High School life."

The memory of any year in La Porte High School, especially this year, is really a fusion of many different memories–a fusion of people, events, emotions. Remembrances of that elusive BELL, the inevitable studying, the visits by Ann Landers and "The Dreams," and even the once-routine bomb scares combine to make this year a unique and eventful one. All these important moments in our school life become fused together as one memory, as one year. Therefore, this yearbook has tried to represent 1971 as a fusion–a fusion of special memories to be seeded out again perhaps another fifty years from now as we and others look back upon this year.

As the staff in 1919 hoped, this year's staff also hopes that our book may "win the praise." However, the "task" is not completely done. The 1971 El Pe is just a beginning–it represents a fusion which can only be interpreted and understood by the students who experienced and helped to make it.
